RIMERS of PENNSYLVANIA and OHIO

Preface

References and sources will be cited in the text thus--(AUDITOR) and will be defined in the list of References appended. The numbering system used herein is this--

> Each child of the earliest ancestor will receive an arabic number, in order, such as 1, 2, etc. Their descendants respectively are numbered using decimals to show each relationship. That is, #1.1 was the first child of individual number 1. Likewise, #2.3.4 was, reading in reverse, the fourth child of the third child of individual number 2. A "+" preceding a number--for example, +2.1--means that individual is fully treated later.

The most common variant, and earlier, spelling of Rimer is Reimer, and it also appears as Rymer. The belief within the family is that their origins were in the province of Hannover, Germany (LENORE). Its ruling family from 1714 to 1837 was the Royal House of Britain. From 1814 to 1866 it was a kingdom and from 1866 to 1945 it was part of Prussia. The area is now Niedersaschen, or Lower Saxony (i..e., lower down the Elbe River), and includes the city of Berlin in what was until recently East Germany. In general the people spoke Low German or Platt-Deutsch, and about 72% were Protestant (KONRAD).

In any event Germans began a mass immigration into Pennsylvania about 1710. In 1730 there is record of a Frederick Reimer (c.1695-1758) from Germany to Montgomery Co., PA. Another early immigrant in 1748 was Valentin Reimer (c. 1714-1794). His sons were Daniel (-1811), Israel, Jacob, and Henry. The will of Valentine Reimer, of Williams Tp., is filed in Northampton Co., PA (2-256), dated 30 Dec. 1793 and proved 31 Mar. 1794. His wife and children were named. One document shows he was deceased before 4 Mar. 1794. It is possible, but unproved, that his son Jacob was our ancestor. Extensive research of the records of Montgomery and Northampton Cos., PA, have failed to establish the parentage of Jacob Rimer, below.

JACOB RIMER (1755/65-1829)

Jacob Rimer of Luzerne Co., PA, parentage unknown, turns out to be our earliest known ancestor. He was born probably in Northampton Co. ca. 1755/65, mar. Jane ____, born ca. 1755/65, and died in 1844, Luzerne Co., PA. Jacob Rimer died there intestate in 1829. They were my great-great-great-grand-parents. (The genealogy of Luzerne Co. is that Northumberland Co. was created from Northampton et al in 1772; Luzerne, from Northumberland in 1786.)

He was probably the Jacob Reymer in the 1800 census of Lower Smithfield Tp., Northampton Co., PA, as the family pattern can be reconciled with the 1810 census below. The 1800 listing was thus:

Males: 1, -10
2, 10-16
1, 26-45 [b.c.1755/74]

Females: 4, -10
1, 26-45

Jacob Rimer was listed in the 1810 census of PA in Hanover Tp., Luzerne Co., as follows:
Males: 2, -10; 1, 10-16; 2, 16-26; 1, 45+
Females: 3, -10; 2, 10-16; 1, 45+
Thus, both Jacob and Jane were born before 1765.

In the 1820 census of Hanover Tp., Luzerne Co., PA, the Jacob Rimer family was listed thus:
Males: 1, 10-16; 1, 45+
Females: 2, -10; 1, 10-15; 1, 45+
The young son was probably Jacob, Jr.

In Luzerne Co., PA, Deeds 14-508, dated 26 Aug. 1813, recorded 27 Nov. 1813, Jacob purchased from Edward Inman 106 acres, parts of lots #9 and 10, first division. (See son George below for the sale of same.)

Records pertaining to the settlement of Jacob Rimer's estate in Luzerne Co., PA, are pretty complete and interesting. They begin with a bond for the executors dated 12 Sep. 1829. The Executors were Michael Rimer and Daniel Couchglazer. An inventory was filed 15 Sep. 1829 and accounts were filed 1 Mar. 1831 and 1832. These additional Orphans Court Dockets applied:

- 2-241, Jacob Rimer/Reimer, 7 Jan. 1831, Executor directed to settle account.
- 2-252, Account filed 7 April 1831
- 2-297, states Jacob Rimer died intestate in 1829, dated 12 April 1832.
- 2-307, Jane Rimer, widow, 196 acres of land to be partitioned, dated 22 Nov. 1832

The most revealing record was a petition in Nov. 1832 by Jacob, Jr., for partition of his father's land. The petition states that Jacob, Sr., left a widow and ten children; viz., Daniel, George, Jacob, Elizabeth, Catherine (mar. John Myer or Meyers), Rebecca (mar. Geo. Myer), Rachel (mar. Jacob Garrison), Susan (mar. John Nagle), Sally (mar. Joseph George), Michael (since deceased). (Old Orphans Court, 2-344) The 196 acres had been received by Patent of PA on 12 Sep. 1812 (Patent Bk. IH No.7-447) and Rec. Deed 27 Jan. 1813 to Edward Inman(?) and conveyed to Jacob Rimer 26 Aug. 1813 (Deed Bk. 14-508).

The petition stated that all children were in Luzerne Co. except Daniel, in the State of Ohio, Madison Tp., Franklin Co., and notice of the petition was sent to the Columbus, OH, post-office. Old Orphans Court Docket 2-358 on 22 Dec. 1832 found that the land could not be partitioned. It was valued at $19/acre. (Recorded 14 Jan. 1833.) Other Orphans Court Dockets also pertained to the petition: 2-352, 10 Jan. 1833, and 2-361.

A subsequent record (Docket 2-379), 3 April 1833, mentions the minor children of Michael Reimer, dec'd., as Elizabeth, Caty, Mary, Susana, and John. It also shows Daniel's sister Elizabeth had mar. John Ramback. The docket also stated that Daniel Reimer did not appear and Christian Nagle, guardian of minor children of Michael, appeared and refused to accept said estate. John Nagle and George Myers in behalf of their wives appeared and accepted the valuation. Remaining heirs did not appear. Michael must have died in late 1831, as a record of 4 Jan. 1832 (Docket 2-281) related to his estate.

Docket 2-444 stated that Nagle and Myers were to pay Jane Rymer (for the estate) yearly for her life $30.19 and on her death, to Susan (Nagle) $56.06 and to Jacob Rymer, Elizabeth and Rachel, each $53.06. Recorded 8 April 1834. The above "recognizance" was satisfied 10 April 1856. Docket 6-153, 24 Jan. 1856 said the widow was dec'd. ca. 1845; Mrs. Romback was also dead; all other heirs have moved from PA except Susan Nagle.

The most revealing record was a petition in Nov, 1832 by Jacob, Jr., for partition of his father's land. Recorded 8 April 1834. The above "recognizance" was satisfied 10 April 1856. Docket 4-123, 24 Jan. 1856 said the widow was dec'd. ca. 1845: Mrs. Rembeck was also dead; all other heirs have moved from PA except Susan Nagle.

Will Book A-189 records the will of Jane Rymer of Wilkes-Barre Tp., was signed by her 16 Mar. 1844 and sworn to by the witnesses on 6 May 1844. It mentions two daughters, Susannah Shafer* and Elizabeth Brandon*, and children (not named) of Elizabeth and Susannah. Christian Nagle was named trustee for Susannah. Andrew Kithline of Newport Tp. and Christian Nagle of Hanover Tp. were executors. The will was sworn to by James Bragg and William Wurtz and recorded on 20 May 1844. Deed Book 42-727 on 1 Mar. 1846 (below) states that Andrew Keithline and Christian Nagle "refused the burthen" of executors and Administration was granted to William Apple.

* These names are a puzzle since daughter Susan mar. John Nagle and daughter Elizabeth mar. John Ramback. Perhaps they were grand-daughters, daughters of deceased son Michael.

The Old Registers Index, 1-2 (of documents lost in a flood from hurricane Hazel in the 1950's) lists these other pertinent documents:

Rymer, Jane--Executor, William Apple "cum testaments annexed." Bond, 13 May 1844. Inventory, 14 Jan. 1846.

Rymer, Jane--Exec., William Apple, Will, 13 May 1844. Inventory, 1 June 1844. Account, 29 June 1846.

In the Old Orphans Court Index, 1788-1872, is listed--

Deed Book 42-727, records that on 1 Mar. 1846 William Apple, Administrator of the late Jane Rymer of Wilkes-Barre Tp. sold to Lewis Bevin 11,053 feet on the Easton--Wilkes-Barre turnpike. Rec'd. payment 31 Mar. 1845. Recorded 1 April 1846.

Settlement of Jacob Rimer's estate resulted in an agreement for payments to Jane yearly for life, which was recorded as "satisfied" on 10 April 1856. A record of 24 Jan. 1856 refers to Jane, the widow, dec'd., says that Mrs. Romback was also dead, and all other heirs have moved from PA except Susan Nagle.

The children of Jacob and Jane Rimer, born in PA, were, sequence uncertain:

+ 1 Daniel RIMER, born 12 Aug. 1786, died 25 Aug. 1857, mar. Catherine Vandemark. She was born 13 Sep. 1785, died 8 1875.

2 George RIMER, born before 1795, mar. Mary ____, born between 1795 and 1804. It was probably this George Rimer listed in the 1820 census of Hanover Tp., Luzerne Co., with a son and a daughter both under 10. In Deeds 28-484 George Reimer and wife Mary of Hanover Tp. sold to Joseph George 106+ acres (conveyed to the late Jacob Reimer by Edward Inman and wife Jerusha). 15 June 1832 and recorded.

* These names are a puzzle since daughter Susan mar. John Nagle and daughter Elizabeth mar. John Rombach. Perhaps they were grand-daughters, daughters of deceased son Michael.

Settlement of Jacob Rimer's estate resulted in an agreement for payments to Jane yearly for life, which was recorded as "satisfied" on 10 April 1856. A record of 24 Jan. 1835 refers to Jane, the widow, dec'd., says that Mrs. Rombach was also dead, and all other heirs have moved from PA except Susan Nagle.

The children of Jacob and Jane Rimer, born in PA., were, sequence uncertain:

+ 1 Daniel RIMER, born 11 Aug. 1786, died 25 Aug. 1837, mar. Catharine Vandemark. She was born 13 Sep. 1785, died 8 1875.

2 George RIMER, born before 1795, mar. Mary ___, born between 1795 and 1804. It was probably this George Rimer listed in the 1810 census of Hanover Tp., Luzerne Co., with a son and a daughter both under 10. In Deeds 28-454 George Reimer and wife Mary of Hanover Tp. sold to Joseph George 100+ acres (conveyed to the late Jacob Reimer by Edward Inman and wife Jerusha), 15 June 1831 and recorded.

3 Catherine RIMER, mar. John Myers/Meyers

4 Rebecca RIMER, mar. George Myers

5 Michael RIMER, born between 1795 and 1804, mar. Polly___, also born between 1795 and 1804. He died late in 1831 (Docket 2-281). In the 1820 census of Hanover Tp., Luzerne Co. he and his wife were listed without children. His estate file (Old Register Index, 1-2 (lost by flood), Luzerne Co., PA) records that Michael's executor, Ovid Johnson, gave bond 17 April 1832. An account was filed 10 Jan. 1833. In Docket 2-353 Ovid F. Johnson was named administrator of Michael Rymer's estate, 10 Jan. 1833.

A petition of Polly, widow of Michael, in April 1833 requested appointment of Christian Nagle as guardian for her five children, all under age 14. The children were identified as Elizabeth, Caty, Mary, Susanna, and John. Recorded April 1833. The children of Michael and Polly RIMER, all born between 1819 and 1833, therefore, were:

5.1 Elizabath RIMER, may be the Elizabeth Rimer who mar. Thomas Cary, 29 Aug. 1850 in Putnam Co. (DAR-II).

5.2 Catharine/Caty RIMER

5.5 John RIMER

6 Rachel RIMER, d/o Jacob and Jane Rimer, mar.Jacob Garrison

8 Jacob RIMER, born ca. 1802 in Luzerne Co., PA, mar. Elizabeth (Saums?). In Deeds 38-50 on 20 Sep. 1841 Jacob Reimer and wife Elizabeth of Hanover Tp. sold to Caleb B. A document in 1856 (see above) says he had left PA by then. It is not proved, but he is probably the Jacob Rimer/Rymer who moved to Putnam Co., OH, in 1841 and was in Jackson Tp., Putnam Co., OH, in the 1850 census. The data for him were:

Jacob Rymer, age	48, born in	PA, farmer
Eliza	45	PA
John	20	PA, farmer
Eliza Jane	15	PA
William	13	PA
George D.	11	PA

Daniel Rimer may have had a prior marriage which resulted in two children (notes not documented as to source):

James RIMER, born before 1809(?)
Catherine RIMER, born before 1809(?)

In (BOOK) Catherine was described as > "a woman of strong character and great energy and ability. In the early days when there was no church building her home was open to religious services. In 1812 she and her second husband, Daniel Rymer, left Wilkes-Barre for Ohio. It was late in the winter when sleighing was good. On reaching Pittsburg the snow had melted amd they abandoned their sled and made the remainder of their journey to Fairfield Co., Ohio, on horseback. There were few roads and no bridges west of the Alleghenies then. Nearly all the way was through dense forests. After many trials they reached their destination. After remaining for some years in their new home they removed to Putnam Co., Ohio, and bought land on Hogg Creek adjoining the farm of Jacob Clevenger, her son-in-law. There she spent the remainder of her days in peace and plenty."

In the Register of Deeds, Luzerne Co., PA, Courthouse, there is this deed recorded:

> Vol. 25, p. 213, Daniel Rimer and wife Catharine to John Cary, Jr., of Hanover (Admr. of John Cary, Jr., decd.; see above), she the widow of John Cary, Jr., decd., all her dower, part of Lot #18, 1st division of Wilkes-Barre Tp., 123 acres, dated 19 Oct. 1812; recorded 22 July 1828.

It was in the winter of 1812 that they migrated, bringing baby Eliza, to Fairfield Co., OH, where in the 1820 census of Ohio Daniel Rimer was listed in Greenfield Tp. At that time his family included three males and one female, under 10. After a short time they moved to Franklin Co., OH, where they owned a farm near Groveport. OH. That move may have coincided with the inheritance of property in Franklin Co. by Catherine from her father in 1823.

The will of Jeremiah Vandemark, father of Catherine, was dated 2 Sep. 1823 and proved on 30 Oct. 1823, in Franklin Co., OH. Land purchased by Jeremiah Vandemark about 1814, but not recorded until 1832, after subdivision of the land by his will, the NE 1/4, Sec. 29, T. 11, R. 21 (Mathews Aurvey), 160 acres, whereon Jeremiah Vandemark had lived, was devised by his will as follows:

30 acres, East side, to Daniel (son)
30 acres, West side, to Jeremiah, grandson and son of Daniel
100 acres, undivided to daughters:
    Ruth Low
    Leah Hite
    Elizabeth Wade
    Jane Bennett
    Catherine Rimer
    Mary Blair

In the 1830 census Daniel and Catherine Rimer were enumerated in Madison Tp., Franklin Co., OH, both aged 40-50, with the following children:

Males, 3, ages 15-20
1, age 5-10
Females, 2, under 5

The move to Putnam Co., OH, took place in 1832, when they purchased 40 acres of land in Union Tp. near Kalida, along the Ottawa River, named for the Ottawa Indians, also called Hog Creek. Their son Jacob had gone to Putnam Co. a year earlier at the age of sixteen. Ohio Land Records, State Auditor's Office, contain a pertinent land purchase, as follows:

2 Nov. 1832, Catherine Rimer. 35+a. NW fraction, NE 1/4, S. 20, T. 1S, R. 6E [This land is in Union Tp.]

Putnam Co. was formally organized 3 Jan. 1834. The first county court was held at the house of Abraham Sarber near Kalida, with the judge's seat on the side of a bed.

Daniel Rimer appeared on 1835 personal property tax lists of Putnam Co., OH, in both Union Tp. and Sugar Creek Tp. (OR&PF). On 14 Jan. 1837 Jacob Rimer purchased from the Land Office, Lima, OH, Cert. #9256, NW 1/4, NW 1/4, S. 24, T.1S, R.6E, 40 acres at $1.25 per acre. The patent was dated 4 Sep. 1838 (Lima Vol. 19, p. 181). This land is in Union Tp.

In the 1840 census of Ohio, this family was in Union Tp., both aged 50-60, with a son 20-30 and a daughter 15-20. In addition son Jeremiah Rimer, then 20, was listed in Union Tp., and son Jacob, age 20-30, with wife 20-30 and a son under 5, in Sugar Creek Tp.

In 1850 they were listed in Sugar Creek Tp., Putnam Co., OH. thus:

Daniel Rymer, age 64, no occupation [retired?], born in PA
Catherine Rymer, age 65, born in PA

They were both Predestinarian Baptists and members of the Primitive Baptist Church (LENORE). Daniel's education was in German, while Catherine's was in English. Both spoke English without accent. Both are buried in the Vaughnsville, OH, cemetery.

The children of Daniel and Catherine (Vandemark) Rimer were:

1.1 (Sarah) Eliza RIMER, born 29 Nov. 1811 in Northampton Co., PA; was married Jacob Clevenger in Franklin Co., OH, 25 Jan. 1829 by John F. Solomon, M.G. (2-218) (DAR). Jacob Clevenger was born 9 June 1803 and died 22 Jan. 1880. Eliza died 29 May 1892. They removed to Putnam Co. with other Clevengers in 1830. They left Columbus on October 15 and arrived in Sugar Creek Tp., Putnam Co., on October 23.

It took us eight days to get to our destination. We landed here and unloaded our goods by the side of a large oak tree, which was all the shelter we had, and built a large fire by the side of a log and our women cooked our meals over it. In a few days we had made some clapboards and built a kind of shed to protect our goods....we went to work and cut logs (which we did not have to go far to find, Putnam county then being almost an unbroken wilderness) and put up four log cabins, one for each family, after which we cleared eight acres of land, it being in the green woods, and planted it in corn, having nothing to cultivate the ground with but hoes, but thank God we knew how to use them. We raised a good crop....There was a band of Seneca Indians only a few rods from where we first landed with whom we had some dealings, in the way of trading corn and potatoes for dry goods and groceries....Game was plenty, such as it was, viz; deer, bear, coon, squirrel, wild turkey, with now and then a wild hog. The streams abounded with fish of all kinds....At or near the end of three years we bought a piece of land on the west side of Hog Creek, upon which we now reside....had a good prospect for corn when that memorable July freshet came and swept it all off, leaving us nothing but a desolate waste. Had it not been that people were more generous than they are now, we cannot see how we could have lived through those times, with nothing to eat and no money to buy. Those who raised a crop that year divided with those who lost theirs.... The Passport has a good story. It's the size and shape of an actual passport, which BlackBerry calls "the international symbol of mobility." The design is startling and polarizing. Its screen is a near-perfect square and three lines of, yes, physical keys grace the bottom of the phone.

I like its crisp lines and aggressive, vaguely 1980s styling, with matte black plastic, exposed stainless steel frame, and sturdy heft. Its wide body makes it easy and comfortable to hold in two hands while typing.

But the awkward size has drawbacks. You can't easily place it in a car's cup holder, so if the phone is your navigation companion, it's hard to figure out where to put it. It'll

Ringling Bros. circus to close after 146 years

ASSOCIATED PRESS

ELLENTON, Fla. — After 146 years, the curtain is coming down on "The Greatest Show on Earth." The owner of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus told the Associated Press that the show will close forever in May.

The iconic American spectacle was felled by a variety of factors, company executives say. Declining attendance combined with high operating costs, along with changing public tastes and prolonged battles with animal rights groups all contributed to its demise.

"There isn't any one thing," said Kenneth Feld, chairman and CEO of Feld Entertainment. "This has been a very difficult decision for me and for the entire family."

The company broke the news to circus employees Saturday night after shows in Orlando and Miami.

Ringling Bros. has two touring circuses this season and will perform 30 shows between now and May. Major stops include Atlanta, Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, and Brooklyn. The final shows will be in Providence, R.I., on May 7 and in Uniondale, N.Y., at the Nassau County Coliseum on May 21.

The circus, with its exotic animals, flashy costumes, and death-defying acrobats, has been a staple of entertainment in the United States since the mid-1800s. Phineas Taylor Barnum made a traveling spectacle of animals and human oddities popular, while the five Ringling brothers performed juggling acts and skits from their home base in Wisconsin. Eventually, they merged and the modern circus was born. The sprawling troupes traveled around America by train, wowing audiences with the sheer scale of entertainment and exotic animals.

By midcentury, the circus was routine, wholesome family entertainment. But as the 20th century went on, kids became less and less enthralled. Movies, television, video games, and the Internet captured young minds. The circus didn't have savvy product merchandising tie-ins or Saturday morning cartoons to shore up its image.

"The competitor in many ways is time," said Mr. Feld, adding that transporting the show by rail and other circus quirks — such as providing a traveling school for performers' children — are throwbacks to another era. "It's a different model that we can't see how it works in today's world to justify and maintain an affordable ticket price. So you've got all these things working against it."

The Feld family bought the Ringling circus in 1967. The show was just under 3 hours then. Today, the show is 2 hours and 7 minutes, with the longest segment — a tiger act — clocking in at 12 minutes.

Belford Ax-Handle Factory

Columbus Grove has had several ax-handle factories in the past. The Belford Ax-Handle Factory and Saw Mill was located on West Sycamore Street. Al Talbert operated an ax handle factory on Water Street (now South Main) beside the B&O Railroad.

The ax-handle factory that most of the citizens of Columbus Grove remember was started by J. F. Jones. At first, he shaved out ax-handles in his spare time at his home. In 1881, Mr. Jones and his son Charles opened a factory on West Sycamore Street, near Plumb Creek. They bought the old Methodist Church in 1891, and moved along the B&O railroad tracks at the end of South Broadway.

Charles and his brother, George, took over the management in 1918, when their father died. The following year, Charles retired and George carried on the business until his death in 1945. At the present time, the factory on South Broadway is used for storage space by the village and also houses one of the auxiliary fire trucks.

Vinnie Ridinger Dress Shop

EZRA RIDINGER with his wife, Vinnie and two children moved into the building known as the Greiner Saloon in 1915. Vinnie Ridinger opened her millinery store, Feb. 19, 1915, at a time when high button shoes and willow plumes for hats were high style. In the front of all business places, there were hitching posts. The Model T. Ford, Maxwell and Studebaker cars were novelties, and the sound of one coming, would cause everyone to gather to watch it pass by.

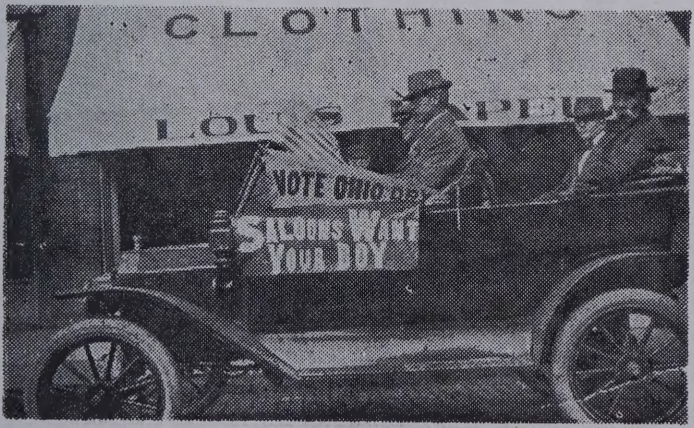
The first room she occupied was on South High Street, where McCrates' Used Car lot is now located. Frank Jones operated a garage selling Maxwell Cars next door to the south and to the north was Starkweather Implement Store.

Millinery, in 1915, was a creative art, as each hat was designed for the individual customer, making frames and covering them with straw, velvets and net. There were two fashion seasons and at these times a grand opening would be held, showing the latest styles and colors.

The stores were open six nights a week, as people came to town to visit, or to attend the silent movies, shown on the southwest corner of High and Sycamore Streets. It was a prosperous town with two banks, the Exchange and Peoples', also two large Department Stors, Days' and Levi Basingers'.

Mrs. Ridinger moved to her present location, 118 North High Street, in 1919. In 1933, with her daughter, Kathryn, she opened an ice cream and sandwich shop, then went back into the ready-to-wear business in 1936.

She considers it a great privilege to have served this community for half a century.



The year Ohio went dry a parade through the square of Columbus Grove told of the big event. Driver is Dr. Wilcox; front seat, Frank Johnson; back seat, Perry Bennett and Charles Hoffman.

The Model T Ford, Maxwell and Studebaker cars were novelties and the sound of one coming, would cause everyone to go out to watch it pass by.

The first room she occupied was on South High Street, where McCrates' Used Car lot is now located. Frank Jones operated a garage selling Maxwell Cars next door to the south and to the north was Starkweather Implement Store.

Millinery in 1915, was a creative art, as each hat was designed for the individual customer, making frames and covering them with straw, velvets and net. There were two fashion seasons and at these times a grand opening would be held, showing the latest styles and colors.

The stores were open six nights a week as people came to town to visit, or to attend the silent movies, shown on the southeast corner of High and Sycamore Streets. It was a prosperous town with two banks, the Exchange and Peoples', also two large Department Store, Days' and Bennigers'.

Mrs. Ridinger moved to her present location, 116 North High Street, in 1919. In 1932, with her daughter Kathryn, she opened an ice cream and sandwich shop, then went back into the ready-to-wear business in 1936.

She considers it a great privilege to have served this community for half a century.

Belford Ax-Handle Factory

Columbus Grove has had several ax-handle factories the past. The Belford Ax-Handle Factory and Saw Mill was located on West Sycamore Street. Al Talbert operated an ax-handle factory on Water Street (now South Main) beside the B&O Railroad.

The ax-handle factory that most of the citizens of Columbus Grove remember was started by J. W. Jones. At first, he shaved out ax-handles in his spare time at his home. In 1887, Mr. Jones and his son Charles opened a factory on West Sycamore Street, near Plum Creek. They bought the old Methodist Church in 1891 and moved along the B&O-Railroad tracks at the end of South Broadway.

Charles and his brother, George, took over the management in 1915, when their father died. The following year, Charles retired and George carried on the business until his death in 1945. At the present time, the factory on South Broadway is used for storage space by the village and also houses one of the auxiliary fire trucks.

PUTNAM COUNTY

PIONEER REMINISCENCES,

1878 - 1887

JACOB RIMER.

Born in Fairfield County, Ohio, January 29th, A. D. 1815. Settled three miles south of Kalida, in November, A. D. 1832.

Being single, I resided with my father until the year 1838, when I was married and settled on the farm where I now reside. At the time my father settled in Union township, Kalida was not laid out. In May 1834, the town plat of Kalida was surveyed, I assisted in cutting the brush out of the streets and alleys. In June of the same year, the lots were sold.

All the early settlers located on the streams, and as the bottom land was light clearing and in its virgin state best adapted to cultivation, they were first cleared and planted in corn and potatoes and other vegetables.

The July flood, of 1834, over flowed all bottom land, killing the entire crops. More than half of the town plat of Kalida was overflowed. The effect of this general destruction of the crops was to put all the settlers back one year, compelling them to procure their flour from Sidney, West Liberty and Urbana.

SARAH CLEVENGER,

Born in Luzerne county, Pennsylvania, January 19, A. D. 1805. Settled in Sugar Creek township, A. D. 1830.

On September 9th, 1830, I was married to Joseph Clevenger, and in the same month, on the 22d day, my sister Betsey and George Clevenger, brother to my husband, were married, and Samuel Clevenger who was married sometime in August of the same year, and Jacob Clevenger who was married about two years before this time. We then had a company of eight persons, four young married couples. We all were anxious to try to make a living and add something to what our parents expected to give us. So we made up our minds to move to Putnam county, Ohio. I think sometime in October we started. We were about four days on the road. We thought of settling on Ottawa River, or Hog Creek as it is commonly called. But when we came to the little settlement, where Lima is now situated, the people advised us not to settle on Hog Creek on account of the sickness that had prevailed there that summer. A few people had settled along the Creek, just below where the town of Gomar now is. They had lived on fish that they caught out of the River during the summer, and pounded there corn in a morter for their bread. They got sick and suffered much, some of them died and were burried on the bank of the Creek, and some of them were taken back to the settlement to their friends. There still was one old man left there with four motherless children, the oldest girl was about eight or ten years old. They were there alone when the mother died; the man then left his chlidren with the corpse and went to the settlement, which was five or six miles away, to get some assistance. There were two women and a man or two went with him. When they came, there was a pitiful sight for them to behold. Some of the children were asleep, and the youngest, a little girl three or four years old, was crying and lying on its mother's breast, a sorrowful sight indeed. They made ready as best they could, and buried the corpse on the bank of the Creek just below the house. This was told to me by one of the ladies who was there. This place is just below the bridge that crosses the river on the road that leads from Vaughnsville to Delphos.

When we came there we came to the end of the road or track. The situation and fate of those poor people made us feel somewhat discouraged, thinking that we had come to such a sickly place. We had come from Franklin county which was sometimes very sickly This made me feel bad knowing that I seldom passed a season without having a hard spell of fever, and the rest of our family would be more or less sick, so that we had to have a Doctor more or less every season. It was a little hard to think that there was no Doctor closer than fifty or sixty miles. But we was here in the woods, and among the Indians, and we had to do the best we could and try to be as much composed as possible.

I will now return to the last part of our journey. I spoke of coming to the end of the road on the bank of the River, just above where those people were buried. There we stayed all night and the next day until the men cut a road from there to Sugar Creek, just above where Vauhnsville is now situated. We then drove about three miles through the woods until we reached our stopping place, which was all a wild woods and close to an Indian trail. Here we took our few goods off the wagons and put them down among the logs and brush. We made a fire and cooked our suppers. We placed four wooden forks in the ground, put up two little poles and the end-gate out of a wagon made us a table. Then we sat down and ate our suppers at home as we thought at that time. We then made a tent of forks and poles and bed-clothes, which answered for our lodging place, with two or three log heaps in front of our camp which made it quite comfortable as it was cool. Some of our company slept in the wagons. There was about twelve of us together that night: my father, Adam Sarber, and my husband's father, Benjamin Clevenger and two men with teams and wagons, who had brought us here, and eight of us that expected to stay in the woods until we could clear some of it away. The next morning my husband and the wagoners started back to West Liberty, where they had engaged a load of flour for us, and got one of wagoners to bring the flour to us, the rest of the men going to work cutting down a large oak tree, which was not hard to find, and sawed some of it into board lengths and split boards and made us a shed to protect the few goods that we had brought with us. We then set up our home-made bedsteads. As we had brought very little straw I thought I would make leaves answer. I went and filled a bed tick with leaves, which was a poor make-shift, but as straw was so far away and no way to get it, we had to do the best we could. The next job the men went at was cutting logs for a couple of cabins for us to live in. I think in about ten days we had two cabins raised and covered and the chimney places sawed out, and then without a floor or door we moved into them. This we thought was some better than the shed. We made our fire where the chimney and fire-place was to be. We enjoyed our new dwellings very much, having good health and pleasant weather. We did not like the water we had to use. On account of the dry season there was no running water in Sugar Creek, it just stood in pools, but there being no better we had to put up with it and not complain. Our visiting friends were very scarce, except the Indians, who would often pass along their trail and sometimes call in and look at us and talk a little in their language; sometimes there would be one that could speak English. We did not see but two white women, save those that came with us, for two years.

Again our people went to chopping logs for two more cabins. They raised and covered them, sawed out the doors and chimney places, then cut down a tree and sawed it into flooring lengths and split and hewed what we then called puncheons and made floors in our houses, and made doors and built up the wooden part of our fire places, then shut up the largest cracks between the logs with wood. By this time it was so cold that we could not daub our houses very much. We made the floors over-head with clapboards. This answered very well. We thought we were well fixed, each couple having a house. We then moved into our houses and made ourselves at home. But still we did not feel very well contented on account of our friends having all gone back home, and we had no post office. This was the last of November, and from that time until February we did not hear a word from home or friends. This we thought was a long time. Then Father Clevenger came out to see us, and brought us some flour and coffee. We all were much gratified and well pleased to hear from our friends and that they were all well.

I will now say something more of our woods life. We then had not much to live upon except bread and coffee. We somehow heard that they had pork to sell over on the Auglaize. Some of our men went and found people not far from where Fort Jennings is now, that had pork to sell, though it was not very good, but fearing that there was none better about, they engaged four hogs, one for each family. The men was to butcher and have them ready at a certain time, when the time expired, they borrowed a wagon of their brother William, who had moved out here with us and settled on Hog Creek, just below where Gomar now is. Two of our men started with two horses and a wagon and axes, for they had to cut a road nearly all the way, which was about ten or twelve miles. This we thought was dear meat. We had to dig out a trough to salt it in.

Our men then started up to the settlement, where Lima is now, to buy some corn to feed our cows, for we each had a cow. They were lucky enough to get some, and went to work and cut a road and hauled it down to our home which was six miles. On account of the dry season we could get no potatoes nor vegetables of any kind. We made out to get a bushel of potatoes a piece, and we had to keep them for seed. We would make hominy which answered for sauce. Then they sawed a block off of a log and set it upon end, and I laid fire on it and burned out a hole for a mortar; this was a complete job for us. We made hominy and thought it was very good. We then had bread and meat, pounded corn and coffee. and were satisfied. We then passed through a very extreme cold winter, but if it was cold there was still work to do. We had no table to eat off of. We had eaten off a store-box ever since we had been in the woods, and this we were very tired of doing. My husband went down the creek a short distance and found a black walnut stump about twenty feet high, the top and bark had fallen off and it looked as if it was dryer than a green tree would be. So they cut it down and sawed and split it and hewed out stuff for four tables, and my husband, being a carpenter, went to work and made them. They were far from being handsome, but we were as well pleased with them as though they were ten dollar extension tables. I have mine to look at yet, it is forty-six years since it was made. I often think that they were the first tables made in Putnam county. Our men then went to chopping and clearing some land, so that we would have a place ready to plant when spring came. We had quite a field cleared when the time came to make sugar, which we went at, as we had brought a few iron kettles with us, and as there were plenty of sugar trees, we made a nice lot of sugar and molasses. Then when it got warm enough to make garden, I took the grubbing hoe, or mattock as it is sometimes called, and grubbed up the ground, as it was full of roots, and fixed it up a little like a garden. and planted seeds of all kinds. In a few weeks we had lettuce and radishes. These came very none better about, they engaged four hogs, one for each family. The man was to butcher and have them ready at a certain time, when the time expired, they borrowed a wagon of their brother William, who had moved out here with us and settled on Hog Creek, just below where Gomer now is. We then passed through a very extreme cold winter, but if it was cold there was still work to do. We had no table to eat off of. We had eaten off a store-box ever since we had been in the woods, and this we were very tired of doing. In a few weeks we had lettuce and radishes. These came very acceptable to us. The weather was nice and warm and vegetation grew fine. We got our field fenced and ready for planting, then we planted corn, potatoes, pumpkins, cucumbers and mellons. Our crops grew very nice and yielded plentifully. I think I never have seen as large a crop of potatoes raised from one bushel as we raised that year. We also raised nice, large cabbage, and plenty of it. I thought I must have some saur-kraut, but had no vessel to put it into. So I got my husband to make me a trough; he made it with square corners and hewd it down to hold about two buckets full. I cut my cabbage and packed it in the trough, and set it in a corner, and in time it was just as good as if it had been in any other kind of a vessel. This was quite a treat for us.

In this way we lived together, I mean the four brothers in partnership, for the first two years we were on father Clevenger's land. Then my father gave me money to enter a piece of land. So my husband selected the piece where my old home place is, just above Kalida, where my youngest son now lives. We then had to commence in the woods again, this was quite a task for us, we again being so far away from neighbors, although my oldest brother had moved out the year before and settled where Jerry Douglass now lives. After building a house we moved on our land, and that was before Kalida was laid out. We lived there until we cleared up our farm, which was for about thirteen years.

When Delphos commenced to build up, my husband's health had become somewhat delicate, so that he could not stand farming very well. He thought he would rather work at his trade, which was that of a carpenter. We moved to Delphos in 1846. The next season, 1847, in the latter part of the month of August, my husband took sick, and on the 14th of September he died and left us to mourn over our great loss. We had rented our farm for two years. I went back to our farm and bought the remaining time. We were glad to get back home again, as I thought I could not stay in town with my family. I was left with four children, two boys and two girls, the oldest was in her fifteenth year, the youngest a little babe.

I am at the age of 72 years when I recite these incidents.

So I got my husband to make me a trough; he made it with square corners and hewed it down to hold about two buckets full. I cut my cabbage and packed it in the trough, and set it in a corner, and in time it was just as good as if it had been in any other kind of a vessel. This was quite a treat for us.

In this way we lived together, I mean the four brothers in partnership, for the first two years we were on father Clevenger's land. Then my father gave me money to enter a piece of land. So my husband selected the piece where my old home place is, just above Kalida, where my youngest son now lives. We then had to commence in the woods again, this was quite a task for us, we again being so far away from neighbors, although my oldest brother had moved out the year before and settled where Jerry Douglass now lives. After building a house we moved on our land, and that was before Kalida was laid out. We lived there until we cleared up our farm, which was for about thirteen years.

When Delphos commenced to build up, my husband's health had become somewhat delicate, so that he could not stand farming very well. He thought he would rather work at his trade, which was that of a carpenter. We moved to Delphos in 1846. The next season, 1847, in the latter part of the month of August, my husband took sick and on the 14th of September he died and left us to mourn over our great loss. We had rented our farm for two years. I went back to our farm and bought the remaining time. We were glad to get back home again, as I thought I could not stay in town with my family. I was left with four children, two boys and two girls, the oldest was in her fifteenth year, the youngest a little babe.

I am at the age of 72 years when I recite these incidents.

JACOB CLEVENGER.

Born at Stoverstown, Virginia, June 9th, A. D. 1803, settled in Sugar Creek Township, Putnam County, Ohio, October 23d, 1830.

Was married to Eliza Rimer on January 23d, 1828, and in October, 1830, left Franklin county, Ohio, for Putnam county with my father and three brothers, Joe, George and Samuel. We left Columbus October 15th, (Columbus then being a small town, not as large as Kalida is now), the road was very muddy and winding which made traveling very tedious. It took us eight days to get to our destination. We landed here and unloaded our goods by the side of a large oak tree, which was all the shelter we had, and built a large fire by the side of a log and our women cooked our meals over it. In a few days we made some clapboards and built a kind of shed to protect our goods. About this time we had sickness which discouraged us considerable, but we knew that we would have to endure hardships and privation, so we went to work and cut logs (which we did not have to go far to find, Putnam county then being almost an unbroken wilderness) and put up four log cabins, one for each family, after which we cleared eight acres of land, it being in the green woods, and planted it in corn, having nothing to cultivate the ground with but hoes, but thank God we knew how to use them. We raised a good crop.

Brother William killed a deer occasionally, which were plenty in those days, and brought us some venison and with the fish we caught was all the meat we had. One day in February we were out chopping, the ground being covered with snow, it turned a little warm and some bees made their appearance, we followed them and found five bee trees, which supplied us in honey a long time. There was a band of Seneca Indians only a few rods from where we first landed with whom we had some dealings, in the way of trading corn and potatoes for dry goods and groceries.

Game was plenty, such as it was, viz: deer, bear, coon, squirrel, wild turkey, with now and then a wild hog. The streams abounded with fish of all kinds, besides these there were wolves in great abundance, they being so bold that they would come to our doors at night and go howling around our house; occasionally a panther could be heard in the woods. At or near the end of three years we bought a piece of land on the west side of Hog Creek, upon which we now reside. Commencing again in the green woods we cleared off four acres of ground and put it in corn; had a good prospect for corn when that memorable July freshet came and swept it all off, leaving us nothing but a desolate waste. Had it not been that the people were more generous than they are now, we cannot see how we could have lived through those times, with nothing to eat and no money to buy. Those who raised a crop that year divided with those who lost theirs. In those days we had to go to Sidney to mill and it generally took eight or ten days to make the trip; we would take a load of wheat or corn with provision enough for ourselves and feed for our horses and camp out at night.

The first table we got my wife earned the money to pay for it by weaving (paid five dollars in gold for it) and it is still in the house and in use.

One time Jacob Rimer, brother Sam and myself took sixteen bushels of corn on a boat up Hog Creek to Karns's mill; on the way I fell out into the water and the rest of the boys laughed at me, but we had not gone very far until brother Sam fell out and last of all Jake got a ducking. Before we got there the water got so shallow that we had to get out and shove the boat over the riffles.

We raised a large family of children, thirteen in number, all of which live in this county except three, one son living in Elida, Allen county, Ohio, one daughter in Union county, Ohio, and one daughter in Brown county, Kansas, all pursuing the vocation of farming but one, he is a carpenter. To-day we are the happy parents of thirteen living children, six boys and seven girls, forty-five grandchildren, twenty-five boys and twenty girls, three great-grandchildren, one boy and two girls. At the writing of this article I am seventy-six years old and my wife sixty-seven years old.

A few words to the young and we will conclude: Though you may enjoy better education and better privileges than we did, remember to whom you are indebted for this. It is by our industry and economy that we made this, a howling wilderness, blossom like the rose. As we are about to step off of the stage of action and you are taking our places, fill them with honor, be industrious and economical, let not your life be a failure, that you may look back and rejoice in the fact that the world is the better for your living in it

Truro Cemetery

This cemetery is located on State Route 12, one mile west of Columbus Grove. It is on both sides of the road. The enumeration begins with two sections on the south side of the road. Row numbering begins at the road, and continues to the back. Row 1, No. 1, begins on the east side.

In 1839, the little log church of Truro was built. The church was built due east and west, as were all houses of worship of old. The structure was 25 x 30 feet. The wood stove was placed in the center of the room. The pulpit was on the east end, near the door. Male members sat on the right, female members on the left.

Putnam County Vidette
February 8, 1923

It was called Truro, because the early members were from Truro Township, Franklin County, Ohio. In 1851, a new church building was erected in Columbus Grove.

Truro, now First Presbyterian Church, was organized under the auspicies of Sidney Presbytery. Rev. William K. Brice served as pastor from May, 1850 until September, 1868. He settled on a small farm adjoining Truro. He and his family are buried within the iron fence on the south side of Truro Cemetery.

Mary Jane Mayberry had been married prior to her union with Mr. Vandemark, the first husband, Aaron Jones, was born on December 20, 1825, their marriage occurring on August 22, 1851. William Vandemark was one of nine children, Agnes, Jeremiah, Elizabeth, Esther, Nancy Ann, Elvira, William and a twin sister, Mary Jane, and Daniel, all of whom are deceased. To John B. Stephens and wife have been born four children, William, Velma, Lawrence and Ethel.

Mr. Stephens is a Democrat, and has taken a commendable interest in local and public affairs, having served efficiently as a member of the township school board. He is affiliated with the Christian church, of which he is a trustee, and of which his wife is also a member. The qualities which have made Mr. Stephens one of the prominent and successful men of Sugar Creek township have also brought him the esteem of his fellow-citizens, for his career has been one of well-directed energy, strong determination and honorable methods.

FRANCIS M. RIMER.

Not long ago there was a period from the middle of November to the first of March when very little work was done on the farm. The business man cannot afford a four or five months' vacation nor can the farmer afford it. The business man at the head of any enterprise hardly dares to quit work for two weeks. Not that the farmer does not work hard enough, but his work is poorly planned if he has nothing that he can do during a third of each year. It were far better for the farmer to quit work at noon on Saturday every week in the year than to work long hours during the spring and summer season and cease work altogether during the winter months. The farmer who loves his work and is bent on attacking its problems systematically will not care to pass long periods in absolute idleness. He will find something possible to do no matter how bad the weather may be, and he will work where he may be comfortable. He will have carefully planned his work for the next season, will have attended carefully to the feeding of his stock, the long evenings he will have spent reading the literature of the farm and in studying farm problems. This is the typical life of the present-day progressive farmer, and one of the men who falls in this class is Francis M. Rimer, of Sugar Creek township. Mr. Rimer is a man of more than average intelligence.

Hist of Putnam Co. OH - Rimer

He is a man who has kept abreast of the times with the application of the latest methods, and has kept informed with regard to the latest developments in agriculture, which is evidenced by the fact that he employs all of the latest devices in his farm work.

Francis M. Rimer was born on July 19, 1857, in Sugar Creek township, Putnam county, Ohio. He is the son of Jacob and Elizabeth (Rhodes) Rimer. Jacob Rimer was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, on January 29, 1815. He was the son of Daniel and Catherine (Vandemark) Rimer. Daniel Rimer was a native of Pennsylvania and was born near Rimersburg. He was of German parentage and came to Fairfield county, Ohio, from Pennsylvania, about 1812. Here he remained until 1832, when his son Jacob, the father of Francis M., was seventeen years of age. In this year he located in Union township, Putnam county, where he entered land from the government south of Kalida. Here he spent the remainder of his active life and spent his declining years with his son, Jacob, in Sugar Creek township, where he died on July 5, 1857. His wife surviving him about seventeen years, died in 1874.

Jacob Rimer was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, where he spent his childhood and received his early education. When sixteen years of age, in 1831, he came to Putnam county, Ohio, one year ahead of his parents. After they settled in Union township he remained with them until his marriage on March 1, 1838, at which time he was twenty-three years of age, and when he settled on a farm of eighty acres in section 8 of Sugar Creek township. This land was covered with virgin timber and partly with water. Jacob Rimer built a one-roomed log cabin and a barn and proceeded to clear his land, in which latter undertaking he nearly succeeded during his lifetime. A few years later he built a frame house adjoining the log cabin. This house was of five rooms and quite pretentious for those times. In later years he built a more commodious residence, which is still in use today. Jacob Rimer's wife, Elizabeth Rhodes, was born in Franklin county, Ohio, on July 21, 1816. She was the daughter of Peter and Catherine (Hoffman) Rhodes, and came to Putnam county with her parents when sixteen years of age, in 1831, who settled on the west bank of Hog creek, just below Rimer. Elizabeth here grew to womanhood and was married to Jacob Rimer on March 1, 1838, at the age of twenty-two. Jacob Rimer's parents had five children, three sons and two daughters, Eliza, Jacob, Jeremiah, Daniel and Parmelia, all of whom are deceased. Peter and Catherine Rhodes had seven children, two daughters and five sons. Jacob and Elizabeth Rimer had nine children, seven sons and two daughters, Joseph, born on December 18, 1838, and died on December 21 of the same year; George W., February 5, 1840, and was killed in the Civil War on December 11, 1863; Daniel P., January 8, 1842; Elizabeth, October 23, 1843; James W., March 26, 1846, and died on December 25, 1907; Mary L., May 30, 1848; Leazure, August 21, 1851; Lewis H., September 7, 1853; Francis M., July 19, 1857. Daniel P. was also a soldier in the Civil War.

Jacob Rimer spent a most active and useful life and died on the old homestead, which was largely the work of his hands, in December, 1901. He was a Democrat and an active member of the Baptist church. He was township trustee for several terms, was well known and highly respected and was a man of high ideals and sterling integrity. His wife preceded him to the grave, having departed this life on December 22, 1893. Francis M. Rimer was born on the old homestead of his father and here spent his childhood. He attended the local district school, known as Woods College. Here he grew to manhood and helped his father on the old home farm until he was twenty-eight years of age, when he married.

Francis Rimer was married on December 10, 1885, to Margaret Elizabeth Oard, who was born in Sugar Creek township, Allen county, on January 28, 1866. She was the daughter of Noah and Margaret (Oglevie) Oard. Both of them died when Mrs. Rimer was only fourteen years of age. Noah Oard was born in Allen county in 1824 and was the son of Peter and Anna Oard, the former a native of Pennsylvania. Margaret Oglevie was the daughter of parents who came from Virginia. Her father was a native of Scotland and came to Virginia when nine years of age, settling in Putnam county in pioneer times two miles north of Vaughnsville. To Noah and Margaret Oard, fifteen children were born, fourteen of whom grew to maturity. They were: James Henry, who died in 1912; Mary Jane, deceased; Thomas Clinton; David R. and Peter L., twins; Anna C., deceased; John A.; Amanda O.; Noah O.; Margaret E., the wife of Mr. Rimer; Cynthia A.; Viola, who died at the age of five years; Eva; Lottie and an infant who died at birth.

After his marriage Francis Rimer settled on a part of his father's farm of sixty-one acres, where he built a twelve-room residence and a large barn and other buildings. To his original farm Mr. Rimer has added twelve acres, making seventy-three acres in all. He has always done general farming.

Francis M. and Margaret E. (Oard) Rimer have had seven children: Lenore, born on January 20, 1889; Ralph, February 25, 1891; Helen, May 5, 1894; Russell, September 26, 1897; Louis Richard, July 24, 1899; Margaret, September 24, 1905, and Elizabeth, October 31, 1907. Lenore, who was graduated from the Vaughnsville high school, attended the Lebanon

Normal School, and is now teaching in Oregon. Ralph, who is a graduate of the Vaughnsville high school and the Lima Business College, is also teaching in Oregon. Helen, also a graduate of the Vaughnsville high school, took the normal course at Ohio Northern University and a special normal course at Ottawa. Russell is also a graduate of the Vaughnsville high school. Louis Richard is now a student in the Vaughnsville high school.

Francis Rimer attends the Methodist Episcopal church, of which Mrs. Rimer is a member. Mr. Rimer is a member of the Knights of Pythias Lodge, No. 711, at Vaughnsville. He is a Democrat, having served as school director, township supervisor and township trustee. Francis M. Rimer is well known in Putnam county and highly respected as an up-to-date, progressive and intelligent farmer.

HERMAN HOLTKAMP.

There are few public officials, of the federal class, in Putnam county who are better known or more deservedly popular in the community in which they reside than the genial postmaster at Kalida, to a brief sketch of whose interesting career the biographer, with pleasure, calls the attention of the reader at this point. Though of foreign birth and a resident of this county a matter of less than three decades, Postmaster Holtkamp has so thoroughly absorbed the spirit of American institutions and has so completely familiarized himself with American manners and customs that there is no more thorough American than he, nor none more sincerely devoted to the welfare of his adopted country. One of the best known merchants in the county, he for years having been engaged in the hardware business at Kalida, Mr. Holtkamp also has the interests of the county at large very deeply at heart, and none is more prompt in furthering any movement having the commonwealth's best development in view than is he. Not only that, but his fine musical education and taste make him popular in those circles which contribute in largest measure to the cultural development of the communal life, and he, therefore, may properly be looked upon as one of the most valuable citizens of this county. No review of the history of this section would be complete without proper mention of his services and activities since coming to this county, and it is with pleasure that the biographer presents here a brief and modest sketch of the career of this excellent citizen.

Herman Holtkamp was born in the Province of Westphalia, Germany,

CLEMENT C. RIMER.

Clement C. Rimer, for many years, has been closely identified with the history of Putnam county, Ohio. He is one of the brilliant young attorneys of Columbus Grove, and, throughout his life, has been active in behalf of all worthy public enterprises. He has already achieved a splendid measure of professional success, his years of conscientious work as a lawyer having brought him increasing practice and reputation. By a straightforward, honorable course, Mr. Rimer has built up a large and lucrative legal business. His life is a splendid example of what an American youth, endowed with common sense, energy and determination, can accomplish. He has achieved a splendid record at the bar at an age when most men are merely starting on their life work. He has been intensely methodical and unswervingly persistent in search of legal essentials. Success could not help crowning his efforts and attracting to him public recognition and appreciation.

Clement C. Rimer was born on December 12, 1874, about one mile southwest of Columbus Grove, Pleasant township. He is a son of James and Lucinda (Nichols) Rimer. James Rimer was born on April 13, 1845, about three-quarters of a mile northwest of Kalida, in Union township. He, in turn, is the son of Jeremiah R. and Lucinda (Sarber) Rimer.

It is an interesting fact that the first court held in Putnam county was held at the home of Abram Sarber, a great uncle of Clement C. Rimer. Here the organization was perfected for erecting the first Putnam county court house, at Kalida. Abram Sarber was also the first township clerk in Putnam county. A brother, Adam Sarber, was one of the three first township trustees in this county.

Jeremiah Rimer, the grandfather of Clement C. Rimer, was a native of Fairfield county, Ohio, born on January 23, 1820. He was the son of Daniel and Catherine (Vandemarke) Rimer, the former of whom was born on September 11, 1789, in Pennsylvania, and the latter of whom was a native of Pennsylvania, born there on September 13, 1785. Jeremiah Rimer came to Putnam county, Ohio, in 1832, with his parents, who settled on a farm in Union township. He was a life-long farmer. Jeremiah was twice married, first to Lucinda Sarber, September 19, 1841. She was a native of Franklin county, Ohio, born there on November 25, 1819, and a daughter of Adam and Catherine (Ensden) Sarber. Her parents settled in Putnam county in 1834. Two children were born by this marriage, Catherine and James. His wife died on April 26, 1845, when her son James was only thirteen days old. Jeremiah Rimer was again married on November 5, 1846, to Eliza Jane, the daughter of James and Millison (Watson) Cunningham. Seven children were born by this marriage, Albert was born on May 10, 1848, and served five months in the Civil War, in the One Hundred and Ninety-seventh Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry; William was born on December 2, 1850; John M. was born on October 9, 1852; Minor D. was born on August 6, 1855; Lucinda J. was born on August 31, 1857; Thomas C. was born on May 8, 1860, and Mary M. was born in January, 1867.

Shortly after his second marriage, Jeremiah came to Columbus Grove, Ohio, and lived here two years when he again moved to a farm in Sugar Creek township. He farmed this until 1876, when he sold it and purchased a forty-acre tract in Pleasant township, where he farmed for some time. Subsequently, he sold out and moved back to Columbus Grove, where he spent his remaining days. Jeremiah was a Democrat and, although not active, was called upon to serve as trustee of Sugar Creek township for two terms. He was also infirmary director for several years and a member of the school board. In his earlier days, he was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at Ottawa, Ohio. He was a deacon and active at the time of his death in the New School Baptist church. He died on February 2, 1894.

James Rimer, the father of Clement C., spent his boyhood days on the homestead farm in Sugar Creek township. He left home in 1864 to learn the carpenter trade at Columbus Grove. Aside from one year spent at his trade at Bellefontaine, Ohio, he has been actively engaged in his trade at Columbus Grove since that time. He was married on November 23, 1865, to Lucinda Nichols, daughter of Edward and Margaret (Erwin) Nichols. Edward Nichols was born in Licking County, Ohio, July 4, 1824, and was a life-long farmer. He came to Union township, Putnam county, Ohio, with his parents, when he was twelve years old. He died on May 3, 1863, at the age of thirty-nine. His wife, Margaret (Erwin) Nichols, was born in Chester county, Pennsylvania, February 17, 1818, and died on the homestead farm in Union township on October 2, 1893, at the age of seventy-five. Edward Nichols and wife had ten children: Mrs. Martha Holt, of Columbus Grove; Lucinda, who was born in Pleasant township, October 8, 1846, and who spent her childhood days in Union township; Joseph lives in Paulding county; Mrs. Anna Best lives in Union township; Amos also lives in Union township; Mrs. Hetty Martin lives at Dundee, Michigan; the seventh child died in infancy; Mrs. Jane Anderson lives at Marion, Indiana;

Mrs. Hannah Spratt lives in Wood county, Ohio; Edward died at the age of four years.

To Mr. and Mrs. James Rimer five children have been born. One died in infancy; Mrs. Louis Miller lives in Columbus Grove; Mrs. John Davis lives at Lima, Ohio; Clement C. is the subject of this sketch; Emory lives at Whitehouse, Ohio.

James Rimer is considered a master mechanic at his trade. He has erected many edifices in Putnam county which are still standing as an evidence of his good work. Previous to his coming to Columbus Grove in 1895, he farmed a small tract in Union township, but followed his present trade, likewise. He owns property in Columbus Grove and is still active as a carpenter. He is a member of Independent Order of Odd Fellows Lodge No. 464, at Columbus Grove. He served six years as trustee of Union township, from 1889 to 1895. For several years he was a school director and was for one term a member of the town council. He is not active in politics at this time. He is a member of the Presbyterian church where he is an active elder. For many years he was a trustee of the church, but he has not been active for the past six years. All the family are Presbyterians.

Clement C. Rimer spent his boyhood days in Columbus Grove and on the homestead farm. He was educated in the township schools and in the Columbus Grove high school. He spent one year, 1892-1893, at Ada College and taught school in the township for three years after leaving Ada, attending the summer terms there while teaching. He began reading law under W. C. Tingle and completed the study in the law offices of S. Sanders, of Columbus Grove. Mr. Rimer was admitted to the bar in June, 1902, and immediately opened a law office at Columbus Grove, where he is now active and where he is one of the leading attorneys of the town. He became solicitor of the village, after passing the bar examination, and holds this office at the present time. He was elected justice of the peace, at the age of twenty-one, and served six yars. He was also township clerk for about eight years and filled both offices with credit to himself and to the township and the town. He is now legal adviser to the school board and holds other important positions of responsibility.

Mr. Rimer was married on June 24, 1897, to Miss Ida Swanger, daughter of John and Leah (Kissell) Swanger. To this union three children have been born, Gladys, Helen and Ruth, who are all at home.

Mr. Rimer has always been an active Democrat. He took a strenuous part during Bryan's first campaign, having been called upon to take the stump for that distinguished politician at the age of twenty-one years. He has been a vital factor in all the campaigns since that time and has always responded to his party's call, working hard for victory. He has stumped Putnam and other counties, having been sent out by the state committee.

Mr. Rimer is a member of the Knights of Pythias, though not active at the present time. He and his family are members of the Presbyterian church. Clement C. Rimer is a pleasing young man with a quiet, unassuming manner, frank in all his business dealings and a man well liked in the community for his tenacity of purpose and high ideals.

JOHN DONALDSON.

Among the prosperous farmers of Putnam county who have built up comfortable homes and surrounded themselves with the comforts of life, none has attained a higher degree of success than John Donaldson, of Monroe township, Putnam county. With few opportunities, except what his own efforts and those of his wife were capable of mastering, and with many difficulties to overcome, he has made a success of life, and in so doing has earned the universal respect and esteem of all with whom he has come in contact. He is a man of tireless energy and strong courage, and a man whose career shows that he is an able and conscientious worker. As a citizen, he has been public-spirited and enterprising to an exceptional degree; as a friend and neighbor, he has combined those qualities of head and heart which have won confidence and commanded respect. His life is a splendid example of what an American youth, plentifully endowed with common sense and determination, can accomplish.

John Donaldson was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, August 20, 1850, the son of Aaron and Sarah A. (Swayze) Donaldson, the former of whom was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, in 1810, and the latter born in the same county, December 20, 1827. Aaron Donaldson was the son of John Donaldson, who was born in Maryland, in 1784, and who came with his father to Ohio, about 1805. John Donaldson married Mary Grubb, in 1809. He was a captain in the War of 1812, a Democrat in politics, and, for twenty-one years, a justice of the peace in his township. He died at the age of sixty-four years. His wife was born in 1790, and died at the age of eighty-two.

The children of John and Mary Donaldson were as follow: Aaron, Elizabeth, Letta, Sarah, Mary, Sereña, John, Thirza, Cantha, Malinda,

Sugar Creek Township

- Margaret Rimer
- Laoma Clevenger

This name, Sugar Creek, was derived from the Indians. They had a well-worn trail along the Auglaize River, from their encampments on this river, to their sugar camps at Sugar Level, north of Lima.

The township took on a temporary organization in 1832 or 1833. This organization included what afterwards became the townships of Monroe, Pleasant, Union, and Sugar Creek.

In 1847-1848, the Ohio Legislature assented to the requests of settlers living around Wapakoneta, and formed the county of Auglaize out of six other counties. The Legislature provided for the attachment to Allen County of one hundred and fourteen sections of land belonging to Putnam County. Sugar Creek Township was halved by the Act of 1848 and both halves retain the old name, one now, of course in Allen County.

After this occurred the Putnam County Commissioners reorganized Sugar Creek Township. They compensated for the loss of territory in Sugar Creek: by taking a strip two miles in width from Union Townhip, and attaching the same to Sugar Creek Township; and by taking a strip one mile in width from Greensburg Township and attaching the same to Union Township; thus leaving Sugar Creek, Greensburg, and Union Townships with equal area of land. Sugar Creek, Putnam County, now has 30 sections of land.

The first settlement was made in 1828 on the Ottawa River (Hog Creek), north of where Gomer is now located, by Solomon Sprague and Robert Martin, followed in 1829 by Benjamin Parker and Mr. McCoy. Several members of these families died in the next few years and were buried on the east bank of Hog Creek where Route 106 crosses it.

Many settlers coming in the next six years were married and brought their families: William Clevenger, from Franklin Co., O. in 1830 and Benjamin Clevenger, Virginia; 1831, John Ensley and Peter Rhoades, who was born in Franklin Co., O. in 1810; 1832, Obed Martin, Jacob Rimer from Fairfield Co., O., Isaac Guffy from Franklin Co., O., Selah Bennum; 1833, Henry Teegardin, Fairfield Co., O., John Teegardin; 1834, John R. Jones, Joseph Ford, Warren Co., O.; 1835, John Deffenbaugh, Fayette Co., Penna., Alexander McKinley, Lancaster Co., Penna., and others.

Jones City was platted in 1890 at the intersection of the A. C. & Y. and the Ohio Electric Line. It was laid out by R. W. Jones, from which it derived its name.

Rimer was laid out in 1881 by James W. Rimer, Gomer, O., on the east bank of the Ottawa River and the Northern Ohio, now the Akron, Canton and Youngstown Railroad. When Jacob Rimer found out that the Northern Ohio Railroad was going to lay its tracks through his farm land, he took steps to make certain a town would grow around the carrier right of way. The National Lime Stone Quarry does business at the original site, also the grain elevator which was established many years ago. Lewis Rimer established a grocery store and Post Office. The Rimer Mutual Telephone with some forty-five miles of wire served the community.

Vaughnsville, the only other village in the township, was platted in 1847 by Eli Clevenger, who had come from Franklin Co., O. It included all of that part of the village lying south of what is now known as the Vaughnsville and Columbus Grove Road. That part of town lying north of this road was platted in 1847 also, by D. C. Vaughn, who called it Vaughnsville. The village now includes both platts but it is not yet incorporated. For many years the Northern Ohio Railroad maintained a passenger and freight station, and later a telegraph outlet, here.

The first grist mill in the county, constructed in 1831 by Benjamin Clevenger and his sons, was located on the east bank of Sugar Creek, where Vaughnsville stands today. This mill was termed a "wet weather mill" because it depended upon an ample flow of water in the little creek.

In 1832 the Clevengers cut a road from their holdings at Vaughnsville to Lima. Previous to this, travelers had to follow a trail along Hog Creek, winding in and out of the woods wherever they could find solid footing. The first bridge, constructed of wood, was built in the 1850's across Hog Creek on the Findlay and Fort Wayne Trail. Prior to this the settlers forded the stream. Shortly after the Civil War, the first stone pike was laid in the township on the road south of Vaughnsville, now Route 115.

The soil in Sugar Creek Township is mostly the Hoytville-Napanee. The surface layer is composed of seven to nine inches of very dark grayish brown silty-clay loam, high in organic matter. Some areas have the Sloan-Shoals soil consisting of alluvial soils derived from upland soils. This area was not covered with swamps, for the most part, hence practically the entire acreage was suitable for cultivation.

Eighty-nine residents of this township served in the Civil War, five in the Spanish-American War, forty-six in World War I. No figures are available for subsequent wars.

Population in 1840 was 405. In 1971 there were 1099 persons in the township.

Jones City, today, is non-existent even as a railroad stop.

The Christian Church of Vaughnsville was organized on June 16, 1850. The first services were held in a log school house, which stood near the east end of town. The building in use in 1934 was constructed in 1873. The Old School Baptist Church, organized in the 1850's, erected a church on land donated by Jacob Rimer. The Methodist Episcopal Church, organized about 1859, held their services at first in the same log school house used by the Christian Church people. The building in use in 1934 was constructed in 1874. The Sugar Creek Congregational Church is thought to have been organized in the 1850's. Some years later this organization was abandoned and the Presbyterian Church was organized. The Ottawa River Christian Church was organized January 20, 1861. In 1862 this church erected a building on land donated by John Guffy. In 1890 the Congregational Church of Vaughnsville was organized.

In 1922 the Union Church was organized, consisting of the entire membership of the Congregational Church and a part of the membership of the Christian Church, and a part of the membership of the Sugar Creek Presbyterian Church.

The churches in Sugar Creek Township today are: Vaughnsville-Christian Union Church, Grace United Methodist Church, Trinity Methodist Church; Rimer-Ottawa River United Church of Christ.

Children in Sugar Creek Township attend school in Columbus Grove, Ft. Jennings, and Vaughnsville.

There are a number of thriving businesses, all locally owned and operated, that take care of the needs of the community.

PORTER HASKELL, ex-president of the Second National Bank of Clarion, and who for more than fifty years has been actively identified with the business interests of Clarion county, is a native of this State, born December 10, 1819, in McKean county.

Gideon and Polly (Beckwith) Haskell, his parents, were natives of Maine and Connecticut, respectively, the father born about 1772 and the mother about 1791. Gideon Haskell was of Scotch descent. Reared in a lumbering State, it was but natural that, locating in a timbered country, he saw in that line a promising industry, which, in connection with farming, he followed throughout life, his field of operations being on what is yet known as Haskell's creek. He later moved to New York, thence to Pennsylvania, and finally to Illinois. He stood well as a citizen in the estimation of his neighbors and those with whom he had business dealings. His last home was in the State of Illinois, where he died about 1856. His widow survived him many years, dying about 1870. The children born to this marriage were: Eliza, Joel, Porter, Anna, Esther, Lorenzo, Gideon, Amanda, Howard, Eveline and Lafayette.

Porter Haskell is older than the county in which his long and busy life has been passed, having come to this locality with his parents before Clarion county was organized. He received a limited education, attending only, for a short time in the year, the neighboring schools. At an early age he began working in the lumbering business for others, which he continued to do until he attained his majority. He then became engaged in mercantile business in connection with lumbering, and his half century's busy, tireless life in the county of his adoption has not been without results. Enterprising and progressive, he has left his impress upon the several generations among which he has moved; and in the development of the resources of Clarion county he has played his part. He has been a successful business man. He is a stockholder in the First National Bank of Clarion, and was for years identified with the Second National Bank, of which he was president. He is extensively and favorably known throughout this region, and is a highly-esteemed citizen of the borough of Clarion. He is identified with the M. E. Church; is a member of the F. & A. M. Politically he is a Democrat.

On February 2, 1848, Mr. Haskell was married to Miss Nancy J., daughter of John Hoover, now of Clarion county, but formerly of Westmoreland and Armstrong counties, respectively. To the marriage were born nine children, of whom the following are yet living: James, Martha (Mrs. Archibald Gilfillan), Hattie (Mrs. Walter Brown), Sarah A. (Mrs. F. I. McCormick), Josephine (Mrs. H. E. Emery), Porter M., and Charles H. James, the eldest child, married Maria Bartlett, of Clarion county, and of their children, Wade Porter is a prominent merchant-tailor of Clarion. Mrs. Porter Haskell's death occurred November 28, 1895.

JOHN T. RIMER, M. D., a physician of high standing in Clarion county, and a resident of the borough of Clarion, was born in the county, January 16, 1855.

Jacob Rimer, the grandfather of our subject, was a native of Northampton county, but in August, 1815, settled in Clarion county, locating near Curllsville, and later removing to the vicinity of the present borough of Rimersburg, where he remained permanently. His wife was Elizabeth Hilliard, and their children were: John, Susan, Christ, David, Catherine, Mary A. (who married Henry Miller, of Redbank township), and Daniel, all now deceased. Of these, John Rimer settled on the present site of Rimersburg, where he kept a hotel, and from him the place derived its name. David A. Rimer was born in Northampton county March 4, 1815; on April 11, 1854, at Rimersburg, he was married to Mary G. Patton, who was born at the homestead where she now resides, September 23, 1833, and is a daughter of James and Mary (McWilliams Boyd) Patton, natives of Centre county, but who came to Clarion county in the spring of 1833, settling on the farm referred to above. To the marriage of David A. Rimer and wife were born children as follows: John T. is our subject; Alva J. married Ada Hogan, and is a farmer; Mary E. married Rev. Andrew Fleming, who is an Episcopal clergyman of Ashland, Ky.; James P. married Roda Wilson, and is a farmer; Margaret married Fred Gruble, who is in the bakery business at Rimersburg; Harry M. is an attorney of Clarion; David A. married Bessie Kerr, and is a farmer of Perry county; and Edward S. is at home. The father of these farmed extensively, and was one of the substantial men and highly esteemed citizens of the county. He was a Christian man, and for many years was a deacon in the Presbyterian Church. In political affiliation he was a Democrat, and served the people of his township as school director, and for a number of years was a major in the State Militia. He died February 1, 1895, and his remains were interred in the Bethesda Cemetery. James Patton, who was an extensive farmer of this locality, owning some two hundred acres of land near Rimersburg, lived to the advanced age of eighty years, dying in 1880. His wife died in 1843, aged forty-six years, and both are buried in the Bethesda cemetery. Their children are: Margaret is the widow of John Thompson, and resides at Rimersburg; John H. is a farmer residing in Missouri; Jane resides at Curllsville; Mary G. resides on the homestead; Nancy B. married J. J. Fulton, a farmer of Rimersburg; Rebecca and Robert T. (twins), the former being the wife of John Spear, and residing at Braddock, Robert T. being deceased. The parents of these children were each twice married; the father for his second wife married Eliza Lawson, and the children of this union were Isabella, David L., Marcus L., Charles E., James and Anna B. The mother of the children of the former marriage was, when married to Mr. Patton, the widow of Rev. William A. Boyd, by whom she had one son, Samuel M. (deceased). Mary McWilliams, the maternal grandfather of Mary G. (Patton) Rimer, was a Scotchman, who settled in Centre county, and was there occupied as a farmer and surveyor. He became a man of wealth, owning at one time some eight hundred acres of land in Clarion county.

Dr. John T. Rimer received quite a liberal education. He attended the common schools of his locality, then took an academic course in the Clarion Collegiate Institute at Rimersburg, in which he was later a teacher. Subsequently he furthered his studies at Wooster, Ohio. At the age of twenty-two he began the study of medicine at Rimersburg under Dr. F. A. Limberg, then entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, Md., from which he was graduated in 1881. After his graduation he at once began the practice of medicine at Curllsville, Clarion county, where he remained, doing successful and acceptable work, until 1889, when he came to Clarion, where he has since been actively engaged in the pursuit of his profession, building up a good practice and winning for himself a creditable place in the profession.

In 1882 the Doctor was married to Miss Carrie Hesson, of Philadelphia, who died February 9, 1890, and June 24, 1896, he was married to Miss Myrtle B. Collner, who was born April 1, 1870, at Salem, Clarion, and is the daughter of William F. Collner, of Clarion, whose sketch appears elsewhere in this volume. To this second union one son, William Collner, has been born. Both are members of the Presbyterian Church. The Doctor is president of the Clarion County Medical Society, and is a member of the State Medical Society. He is also one of the pension examiners for Clarion county, and secretary of the Pension Board. He has for the past four years been physician of the board of health of Clarion borough. Socially he is a member of the Blue Lodge and Chapter of F. & A. M., Clarion borough. Politically he is a Republican, and is quite active in the party.

ALEXANDER WILSON, of Callensburg, Clarion county, is the possessor of a handsome property, which now enables him to spend his years in the pleasurable enjoyment of his accumulations. The record of his life, previous to 1895, is that of an active, enterprising, methodical and sagacious business man and farmer, who bent his energies to the honorable acquirement of a comfortable competence, but is now practically living retired. In 1895 he erected a pleasant cottage in Callensburg, which town was platted by a Mr. Callen about 1827 on land that William Elliott had received from the government. Abram Frampton built the first house there.

Mr. Wilson was born June 22, 1821, in what was then Armstrong county, but is now Clarion county, and is a son of Alexander and Jennie (McCombs) Wilson, both natives of Westmoreland county, Penn., where their marriage was celebrated. His grandfather, Parks Wilson, and Allen McCombs, were of Scotch-Irish descent, and natives of South Carolina, whence they came to Pennsylvania at a very early day, taking up their residence in Westmoreland county when Indians formed the greater part of its inhabittants. They lived there during the early Indian wars, and assisted in the development and improvement of the county until their deaths. Mr. Wilson was a wheelwright by occupation, while Mr. McCombs was a farmer. The latter was a teamster for the Americans during the Revolutionary war. Both were faithful members of the Presbyterian Church. In Mr. Wilson's family were the following children: Joseph, Robert William, John Lewis, Alexander, David, James, Polly, Elizabeth, Mrs. Crow and Mrs. Seright.

On the farm in Westmoreland county the father of our subject grew to manhood, and on first coming to Clarion county in 1801, he entered land, which he afterward sold. Returning to his native county, he was married, and in 1803 he brought his family to Clarion county, where he purchased another tract of 260 acres of land at the mouth of Licking creek, paying sixty cents per acre. He transformed the wild land into a good farm, and also

JUL 5 1877
PENSION OFFICE.

Invalid Pensions,

Under the Act of Congress, approved July 14th, 1862, will commence from the date of the Pensioner's discharge from service, provided application is made within one year thereafter. If the claim is not made until a la[illegible]e, the pension will commence from the time of the application.

The claimant's identity must be proved by two witnesses;—certified by a judicial officer, to be respectable and credible, who are present and witness the signature of the declarant, and who state, upon oath or affirmation, their belief, either from personal acquaintance or for other reasons given, that he is the identical person he represents himself to be. Every applicant for an Invalid Pension [illegible] his power, produce the certificate of the Captain, or of some other commissioned officer, under whom he served, distinctly stating the time and place of the said applicant having been wounded, or otherwise disabled, and the nature of the disability, and that the said disability arose while he was in the service of the United States and in the line of his duty.

If it be impracticable to obtain such certificate, by reason of the death or removal of said officers, it must be so stated under oath by the applicant, and his averment of the fact proved by persons of known respectability, who must state particularly all the knowledge they may possess in relation to such death or removal; then secondary evidence can be received. In such case, the applicant must produce the testimony of at least two credible witnesses (who were in a condition to know the facts about which they testify), whose good character must be vouched for by a judicial officer, or some one known to the Department. The witnesses must give a minute narrative of the facts in relation to the matter, and must show how they obtained a knowledge of the facts to which they testify. The Surgeon's certificate of discharge should show the character and degree of the claimant's disability; but when that is wanting, and when the certificate of an Army Surgeon is not obtainable, the certificate of two respectable civil Surgeons will be received in accordance with the form on the outside of this application. These Surgeons must give in their certificate a particular description of the wound, injury, or disease, and specify how and in what manner his present condition and disability are connected therewith. The degree of disability for obtaining subsistence by manual labor must also be stated.

The habits of the applicant, and his occupation since he left the service, must be shown by at least two credible witnesses.

Fires plagued Dicus family

It may be that two disastrous fires in different communities where Jacob Dicus had chosen to settle had influenced his decision to move on. Both fires changed forever the course of history for the communities involved.

Jacob Dicus was born in 1802 at Baltimore, MD, to Philip and Ruth (Browne) Dicus. Fifteen years later he moved to Muskinghum County, Ohio, with a sister, Mrs. McBride, where he became a carpenter. When Putnam County was being surveyed in 1821, Dicus lived here for a year. He returned to the home of his sister, who had by then moved to Champaign County.

In 1825 Dicus returned to Putnam County and settled on a farm along the Auglaize River. He brought with him a horse and a couple of cows as he moved along the Auglaize to his chosen home near Ft. Jennings. Two years later Dicus was married to Hannah Carey.

Children of Hannah and Jacob Dicus are: William, born 1828 and married Eva Schenk; James, born 1831 and married Rhoda Hicks; Eliza Jane, born about 1832 and married John Rimer; America, born about 1835 and married first Philip Anderson, second Squire Harris, and third James Fridley of Paulding County; Harrison, born about 1837; Rebecca, born about 1839; Keziah, born about 1841 and married George Rimer of Jackson Township; Milton, born about 1844; and Winfield Scott, born about 1847 and later lived in Union Township.

By 1840 Jacob and Hannah had moved to Union Township and the family now consisted of three sons and three daughters. During this time he probably continued his carpentry work, as there was much to be done in this county where new families were still streaming in to settle. Additionally Dicus continued to farm.

Ten years later Jacob and Hannah with eight children were still living in Union Township. Hannah Dicus died on August 31, 1854, at age of forty-two years in her home in Jackson Township following a short illness. At that time she was a Free Will Baptist.

Following the death of his first wife, Jacob married Rebecca (Carey) White, widow of Isaac Q. Rebecca was probably a sister of Jacob's first wife, Hannah.

In December of 1864 the Putnam County Courthouse, then located in Kalida, burned to the ground. Even prior to the fire, there had been some talk about moving the county seat from Kalida to Ottawa. An election to remove the seat to Ottawa was held less than two years after the fire. The majority of voters favored the move, and a courthouse was built at Ottawa. Most of the folks living in the western part of the county were vehemently opposed to the move.

Dicus was probably among those opposed to the move, and this may have influenced him to move from the county. He made the mistake of moving his family to a community which would suffer a similar disaster.

The family moved to Delphos in 1868, where Dicus bought a grocery store, which he operated in conjunction with his carpentry trade.

Less than four years later fire struck the central business section of Delphos, completely destroying about forty-five buildings, mostly businesses.

A few years later Dicus sold his store and moved to a farm in Union Township, where he lived until about 1881. After the death of his second wife, Dicus sold his farm and moved in with his son, James. Here Jacob Dicus died April 20, 1885.

Pioneers remember settling area

Kalida was the first village in the county to be laid out and settled. Some folks who were in that town early remembered the settling in "Pioneer Reminiscences."

Jacob Rimer said his family came to Kalida in November of eighteen thirty-two, when Kalida was not yet laid out. A year and a half later the town plat was surveyed. Rimer helped in cutting brush from the streets and alleys. In June of the same year lots were sold.

Margaret Myers noted that when the men were surveying Kalida they stayed at the Myers home some five miles distant. The men carried their dinners with them.

Hiram Sarber remembered that in the fall of eighteen thirty-four, several folks were among those who had moved to the area. The young people began socializing with one another. Emeline Scott noted there was signing at the Kalida courthouse every Sunday at four o'clock.

The first fourth of July celebration was held at Kalida. People along the Auglaize River turned out well. Most came in their canoes. Availability of plenty of whiskey made it lively along the river that night.

Mrs. Geyer recalled her family's arrival in Putnam County. It took them five days to travel from Richland County to this county. Upon reaching Ottawa they stayed at Row House for the night. Early the next morning they started toward Kalida. After much toil and difficulty they arrived at a spot five miles from Ottawa known as Huber Slashing, about two in the afternoon. Here they prepared and ate their dinner before proceeding the three or four miles to Kalida. The road led through the swamp and the wagon sunk in to the hubs. Although they had five strong work horses hitched to the wagon, they couldn't proceed any distances without stopping. After going about two-thirds of the distance to Kalida, the horses refused to proceed.

Two of the youngsters proceeded to Kalida on horseback to get help. At midnight a rescue party went after those who were stranded. All arrived at their destination at three in the morning.

Another settlement arose to the east of Kalida. It was called Glandorf to remember the place of origin of the settlers. Father William Horstman established the little settlement. It was made up of Germans who came here directly from their homeland. Political leaders decided they needed to enlist votes of the Germans in an upcoming election. One party canvassed the area thoroughly and had been promised twenty-eight votes by the Germans. The representative was bragging about his success with the Glandorf residents. But his opponent also had been promised the same twenty-eight votes by the same Germans.

When the Germans first moved into the area they worked for farmers in the area doing day labor. They walked from four to six miles to work and walked back home carrying a bushel of corn, their payment for their work, on their backs.

Before the Indians were removed from the area, an Indian raced into the Ottawa settlement shouting that a man was lost in the brush. The man had staggered and fell and was presumed dead. The Indian added, "He no white man, he a dutchman." Germans were then ostracized as outsiders.

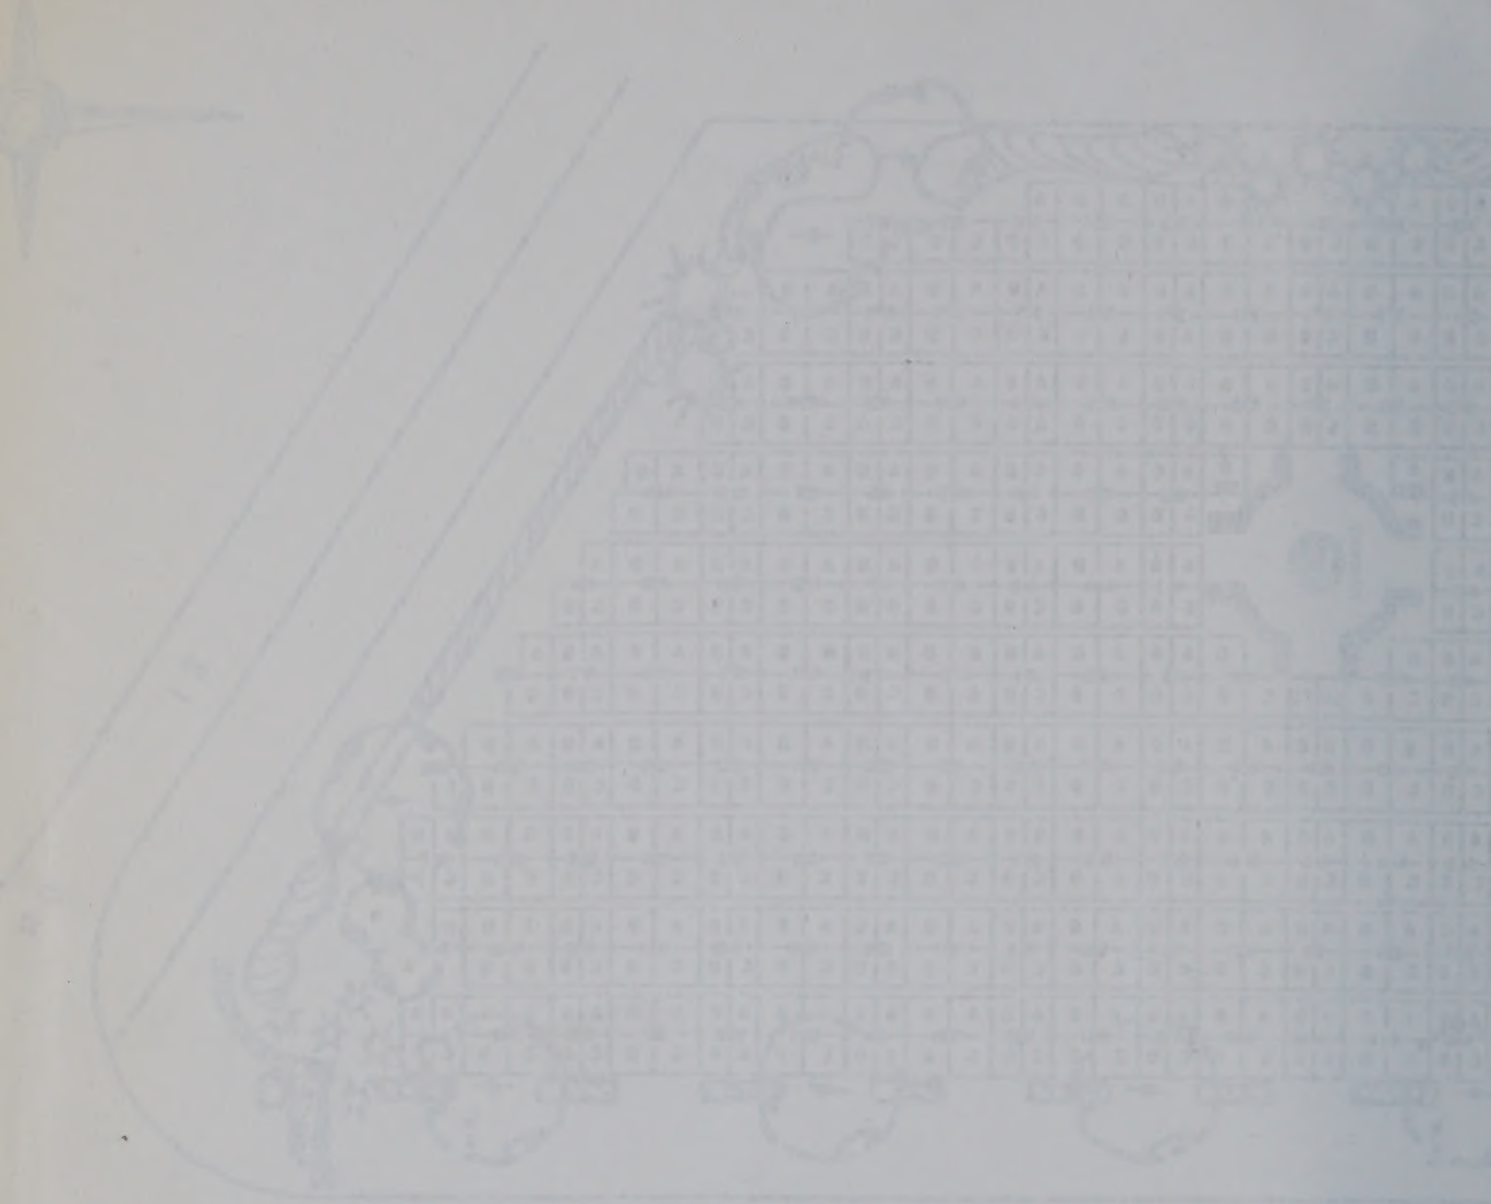
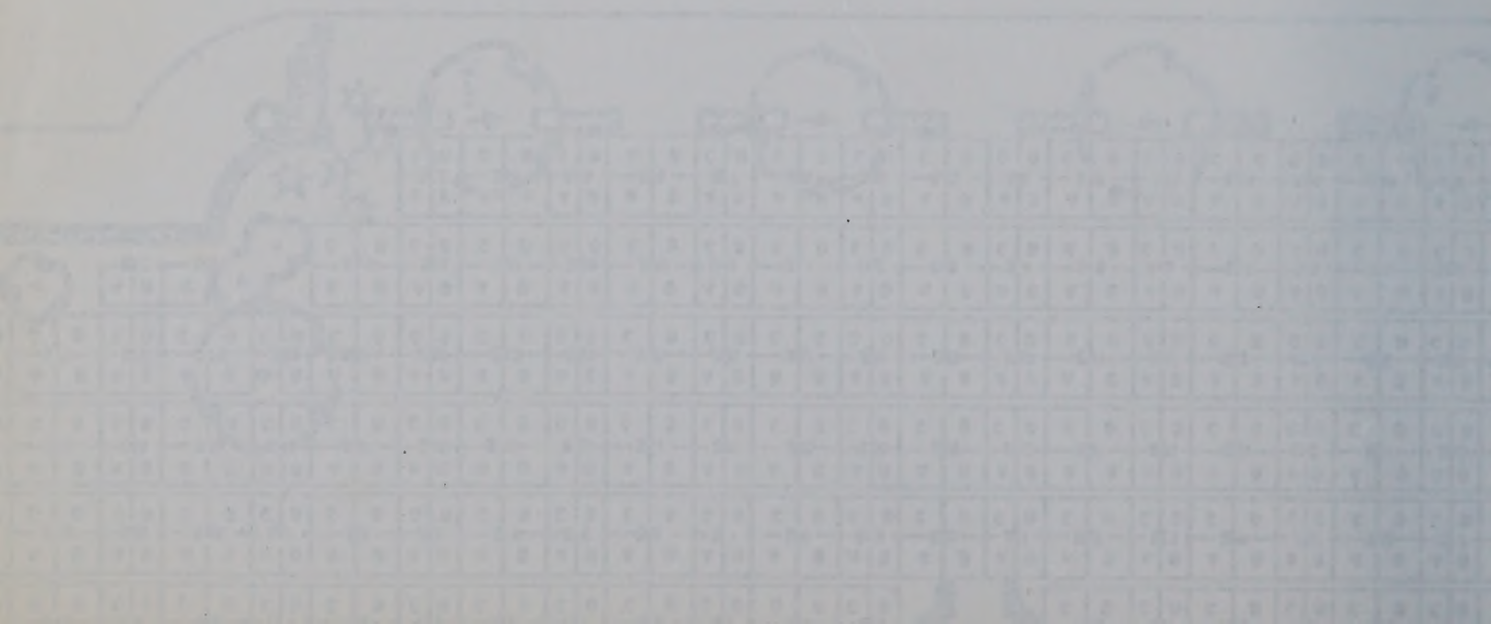
SECTION ONE
NO 12





The next is on the right. This is the RIMER house. RIMER removed to the West about 1843 and it has been a tenant-house ever since. The property belonged to C.B. FISHER for many years, but has belonged to a coal company since 1855.

The next house is on the right. It is the old Cornelius GARRISON house. After GARRISON's death in 1825, this house belonged to his daughter Rachel, afterwards, about 1840, married to William STAPLETON. The property was divided into lots by STAPLETON and sold, except the small lot on which the old house stood. This he willed to his niece, the wife of Thomas ROACH.

The next is on the left at the corner of the GARRISON cross-road. This was the Andrew SHOEMAKER house. He sold out about 1838 and removed. The house still stands, with a plank addition to it, is a tenant-house and belongs to a coal company.

On the cross-raod to the left some forty or fifty rods was the Jacob GARRISON house. He removed to the West in 1842, and the house was a tenant farm-house until about 1856, when the shaft at Sugar Notch was begun. The old stood and was occupied until within about ten years. It has been replaced by a large double miners' tenant-house. It belongs to a coal company. This is the extreme eastern end of Sugar Notch borough, as the Jacob RUMMAGE property is the extreme western end of it.

On the right, up in the notch of the Little Mountain, was the house of John ROBINS. He died in 1831. The family soon after left it, and for many years it was a tenant-house. Peter

EEL RIVER CEMETERY

This cemetery, located in section 29 on the northeast corner of Carroll Road and Madden Road, is near U.S. 33. The early records have been destroyed. It is in use today, with several new additions having been made within recent years. Earliest burial date was in 1840. There is a Baptist Church located within the early cemetery section, and in several of the early obituaries it was noted that burial was to be made in the Eel River Baptist Cemetery. In the earliest burial section, our section 4, many of the old markers are almost impossible to read, therefore, you may find discrepancies in some of the readings. This is especially true in the "4" figure.

Helen,
The probate records may be obtained from the Circuit Court Clerk of Elkhart County at $1.00 per page. If you have the page and document number for them, it makes it much easier. You can reach them at:

Elkhart County Circuit Court Clerk
Probate Records Division
Elkhart County Courthouse
101 N. Main St.
Goshen, In 46526

The phone number, if you want it, is 219-535-6431.

Maybe we should check out Elizabeth's husband in 1880. Maybe she is visiting a neighbor who will turn out to be a relative.

The Willard Finch I found for you lived in Michigan. I looked him up - he enlisted as a Private at age 24 on 20 December 1863 at Jackson, MI. Served A Co. 9th Inf reg MI - mustered out at Nashville, TN on 15 September 1865. He received an invalid pension. Application No. is hard to read but I think it is 400268 and certificate is 473733. There is also a Sep 19 18?? date for something else - I will give you the copy.

RECORDS FOUND IN THE OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT.......

THE 1913 FIRE DESTROYED SOME OF THE CLERKS RECORDS.

ALL OF THE RECORD BOOKS YOU WOULD SEARCH IN HAVE ALPHABETICAL INDEXES IN THE FRONT. MOST ARE DATED ON OUTSIDE- HOWEVER MARRIAGE LICENSE BOOKS NEED TO BE CHECKED IN THE BEFORE AND AFTER BOOK AS WE HAVE DISCOVERED SOME RECORDS OUT OF SEQUENCE.

MARRIAGE RECORDS BEGIN IN 1837.

MARRIAGE APPLICATION INFORMATION IN THE BOARD OF HEALTH BOOKS BEGIN IN 1882.

MARRIAGE APPLICATION INFORMATION IN THE RECORDS OF THE CLERK BEGIN IN 1910.

WILLS BEGIN IN 1852 : SOME BEFORE THEN OR MISSING MIGHT BE IN RECORDER RECORDS.

A PERSON MIGHT HAVE HAD AN ESTATE AND NOT A WILL. CHECK THE FEE BOOKS OF PROBATE RECORDS.

BECAUSE OF THE FIRE CHECK ANY PROBATE ORDER BOOK THAT IS NEAR THE DATE OF PERSONS DEATH.

GUARDIANSHIP RECORDS ARE IN THE PROBATE ORDER BOOKS. RIGHT HAND INDEX REFERS TO GUARDIANSHIPS.

CIVIL RECORDS CONTAIN DIVORCE, PARTITIONS ON REAL ESTATE ETC. CHECK INDEXES... RECORDS BEGIN IN 1913 FEE BOOKS.

ON MICROFILM THE OLDER REMAINING ORDER BOOKS CIVIL- BARBARA WILL SEARCH THOSE FOR YOU IF YOU HAVE A DATE IN MIND. ORIGINAL BOOKS STORED IN THE BASEMENT..

THE FEW NATURALIZATION RECORDS WE HAVE LOCATED HAVE BEEN SENT TO THE STATE ARCHIVES. WE DID KEEP A COPY OF SOME OF THOSE . ALSO CIVIL ORDER BOOK 32 HAS THE EARLIEST RECORDS.

FAYNE HARTER HAS DONE A LOT OF RESEARCH ON DEATH,BIRTH, MARRIAGE RECORDS FROM THE RECORDS. THEY ARE HARD BOUND AND WE HAVE A SET OF THOSE AS DO MANY LIBRARIES.

* ALWAYS SEARCH THE ENTRY AND FEE BOOKS. EACH CASE THAT WAS OPENED WAS RECORDED IN THOSE AND GIVEN THE NEXT AVAILABLE NUMBER. THEN A DOCKET SHEET; A FILE TO PLACE ANY PAPERS FILED AND ENTRIES FROM THE DOCKET SHEET INTO THE ORDER BOOKS.

JUVENILE IS CONFIDENTIAL AFTER 1941; MENTAL HEALTH IS CONFIDENTIAL ALSO.

MANY OF OUR RECORDS ARE ON MICROFILM AND A COPY CAN BE MADE. WHEN YOU LOCATE A RECORD YOU DESIRE RECORD THE BOOK , PAGE AND NAME OF PERSON. THE MICROFILM PERSON THEN CAN MAKE A COPY. ALSO IF A CASE NUMBER IS AVAILABLE AFTER 1913 THE FILE IF AVAILABLE MIGHT CONTAIN INFORMATION YOU DESIRE AND THE MICROFILM PERSON CAN ALSO HELP YOU WITH THAT .

THE 1880 ATLAS PROVES HELPFUL SOMETIMES.

 SCANNING OF OUR RECORDS IS "ILLEGAL"......

McClish

On Saturday afternoon last. Alexander McClish, of Fairfield township, accidentally shot and killed his self. The particulars as near as we could get them were as follows: He was passing through the fields on the farm of Mr. Harms, and in crossing a fence in some manner the rifle which he carried was discharged, the ball lodging in his brain. At the moment the accident happened, he was seen by a little girl, who gave the alarm. He was taken to the house, and medical aid was summoned, but before the Doctor reached him, he died. Mr. McClish had lived in the county for many years, and was widely known and respected. He leaves a wife and two children. (Re: Waterloo Press – Sep 11, 1879)

GARRISON, Cornelius

Cornelius GARRISON 1756-1825 was a French soldier in our Revolutionary War. He did not return to France with the French; he married in American and lived on the crossroads between the Back Road at Sugar Notch and the Middle Road. His horses ran away, threw him out of the wagon on the hill by the Preston place and broke his neck.

His wife was Mary _________ 1758-1815.
(Another (wife of Cornelius) is listed: Margaret___________1782-1827

Children: Elizabeth 1782-1827 married John Saum
John 1784-1865 married Catharine (Kate) Mack 1784-1854
*Mary married John Robins
Jacob married Rachel Rimer
Rachel married William Stapleton
Nancy never married
James married Mary Wiggins
Susan 1791-1849

*Mary Garrison Robins: one night one of the children got ill and she got up to attend it. She stepped out of bed and a copperhead snake bit her in the foot, and when she stepped off it was bitten in the other foot. She lighted a candle and killed it before she would let any of the children go for the neighbors and a doctor. She lived to a good old age.

*This family of Garrisons lived in close proximity to the Dilley family of Hanover. If there was intermarriage between the two families, it was probably with this branch...I am giving you a listing of the other Garrison families also present in the area. I have no proof to date if these different Garrison families were related. They may or may not be.

*This may be a separate branch from the Garrisons who lived near Sugar Notch. There is no way of telling. Matthias married into Scottish blood, but as yet there is no definite origin for himself.

There is a generation of Garrisons missing here. We have the Grandfather Matthias, and the Grandson E.W., but no one in between.

I am not certain who this Mary Garrison is yet.

Mary above may tie in here, but so might Matthias and E.W.

Hollis B. Rice, whose name opens this sketch, was about sixteen years of age when his father died, after which sad event he assisted in the management of the home farm for his mother. In March, 1869, he married Miss Samantha Mills, a daughter of Almarion Mills, of Tiffin, Ohio. Mr. Mills was a mason and plasterer by trade, was a public-spirited citizen, and filled several township offices; he died in 1889, the father of the following children: Francis E., who served through the Civil war; Samantha, wife of subject; James, of Toledo, Ohio; Cortez; Laura, married to J. M. Stuter, of Putnam county, who was also a soldier in the late war; Della, now Mrs. Charles Evans, of Toledo; Simon, mason and plasterer, of Leipsic, Ohio, and Maggie, who died unmarried. The mother of this family still survives at the age of seventy-five years, a devout member of the Methodist Episcopal church. The children born to the union of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis B. Rice were six in number, of whom four still survive, viz: John E., still single, and Nellie M., Amy R., and Myron, at home with their parents. Mrs. Rice is also a fervent member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Although Hollis B. Rice devoted a few years of his earlier manhood to road building and other public improvements, he has given almost all his attention to his farm, which he has brought to a wonderful condition of productiveness, and never fails in making a crop; he also raises sufficient live stock for home use, and some is always left over for sale. He has won for himself an untarnished name, his integrity never in any instance having been doubted, and his industry and skill as a husbandman are universally conceded.

FRANCIS S. RIMER, of the firm of Rimer & Meyers, merchants of Kalida, Union township, Putnam county, Ohio, was born in the county January 14, 1863, a son of George D. and Mary K. (Dicus) Rimer. George D. Rimer, the father, was born in Luzerne county, Pa., about 1838, and was a son of Jacob Rimer, also a native of the Keystone state, and of Dutch parentage. He was reared a farmer, and became the father of three children, viz: John, a farmer of Perry township, Putnam county, Ohio; Mary, wife of George Kerry, a poultry dealer at Elida, and George, father of our subject. In 1841 he came to Putnam county and entered a farm, which he cleared from the forest and resided on until his death.

George D. Rimer came to Putnam county with his parents in 1841, and was here reared to farming. He was educated in the common schools, but was well qualified for teaching, a profession he followed for several years, beginning at the age of twenty. About 1862 he married Mary K. Dicus, daughter of Jacob and Hannah Dicus, natives of Maryland. Mrs. Mary K. Rimer was born in Putnam county, Ohio, in 1845, and was a young girl when she was taken to Delphos, Ohio, by her parents, where her father followed the trade of carpenter; he was a whig in politics and in religion a Baptist. To George D. and Mary K. Rimer were born four children, viz: Francis, our subject; Georgia, the wife of George Shriver, a farmer of Paulding county, Ohio; William M., a furniture dealer in Kalida, and John M., on the home farm.

Francis S. Rimer was, like his forefathers, brought up to husbandry, and received the education usually granted to farmers' lads. In 1886, on the 17th day of February, he married Miss Mary L. Haller, who was born in Paulding county, Ohio, in 1864, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Haller, the former a native of Pennsylvania, and the latter of Canada. To the union of Mr. and Mrs. Rimer have been born two children—Paul M., who died at the age of four years, and George N., born December 27, 1893. In 1886, the year of his marriage, Mr. Rimer bought an interest in a tile factory, in which business he was engaged nearly eight years; in April, 1893, he sold this interest and entered the hardware business, buying out a Mr. Cross, and is making quite a success. Mr. and Mrs. Rimer are members of the Methodist Episcopal church, and in politics he is a republican. He is also a member of Kalida lodge, No. 280, F. & A. M., and has a high standing in the community both as a business man and a valued citizen.

MRS. CAROLINE RIDENOUR, relict of the late Henry Ridenour, and a daughter of Isaac and Adeline (Palmer) Allen, was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, June 16, 1836. Her father was also a native of that county, and was born in 1801, a son of John Allen, who was a native of London, England, and while still a young man had come to America. He served in the Revolutionary war with Washington, and after peace was declared he crossed the mountains into the almost unbroken region of the valley of the beautiful Ohio, then known as the northwest territory, and settled in Columbiana county, when white men were few. There he obtained a tract of timbered land, which he cleared and converted into a fine farm, but not without having to undergo many hardships and privations. Here he spent the remainder of his life in the quiet way of the Quakers, for he was a member of that faith, in which he died, in 1821. He was known as a substantial and honest man, was a whig in politics, and had been twice married, becoming the father of five sons and three daughters: David, Benjamin, Emer, John, Sallie, Martha, Lydia and Isaac.

Isaac, the youngest son, was given an education in a little log school-house not far from the home. When not in school he worked on the farm, and learned the blacksmith's trade, and was recognized as a master of his trade. He believed that if anything was worth doing at all it was worth doing well. He married Adeline, the daughter of James and Catherine (Green) Palmer, who was born August 8, 1810, in Loudoun county, Va., and came with her parents by wagon to Columbiana county, Ohio, where they were early settlers. After their marriage Mr. Allen followed his trade in Columbiana county until 1838, when he moved to Athens county, where he continued at his trade and engaged in farming. In 1853 he moved by wagon to Putnam county, where he farmed, having been compelled, after a time, to give up his trade on account of ill health. Fraternally he was a Mason, having joined the lodge at Kalida in 1855, and was also a member of the Shawnee commandery of Knights Templar at Lima. In politics he was a whig, and took much interest in its victories. He was much respected and honored by all. His death occurred February 8, 1886, his good and faithful wife having preceded him on the long journey home, she having died in November, 1873, and had been a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Their children cated in the common-schools of his native country, also attended the high school for some time, and at the age of about thirteen began life for himself as clerk in a dry-goods house, in which capacity he continued until coming to America, in May, 1866. On reaching the United States he proceeded to Louisville, Ky., where he spent fifteen months in the grocery store of his uncle, Henry Wilken, at the end of which time he came to Putnam county, Ohio, where, for one year, he was employed in the Glandorf woolen mills. The following spring he accepted a situation with Frease & Raff, as clerk in their dry-goods house, and after remaining with the firm a little over one year, took a similar position with the firm of J. Frease & Co., in the city of Napoleon. He continued the capacity of salesman in that place until February, 1870, when he returned to Ottawa, and in the ensuing April embarked in the grocery trade, which he carried on with a reasonable degree of success for a period of two years, disposing of his stock in 1872. For some time thereafter Mr. Schimtschulte clerked for Messrs. Bressler & Cole, and subsequently engaged in the clothing business at Leipsic, where he remained until 1875, selling out at that time, returning to Ottawa, and again engaging as a salsman in various mercantile establishments.

In 1880, Mr Schmitschulte accepted a position as deputy clerk with J. J. Zeller, clerk of Putnam county, with whom he remained until the expiration of that gentleman's term of service in August, 1885, at which time he became deputy under R. J. Spelman, and managed the affairs of the office until the death of the clerk in November, 1877, when Mr. Schmitschulte was appointed to fill out the unexpired term. So ably did he discharge the duties of the position that, in 1888, he was elected to the office, was re-elected in 1891, and served until the expiration of his term in August, 1895. When elected clerk, Mr. Schmitschulte defeated his competitor by a majority of 1,753 votes, the largest majority ever given any one man in the county, a fact which speaks eloquently for his popularity with the masses of the people. That he has been a capable, painstaking, and popular official goes without saying; and it is doubtful whether the county of Putnam has ever had a more gentlemanly and efficient public servant. He is public spirited, takes an active interest in the welfare of the country, and is a typical representative of that large class of Germans who become our best citizens.

Mr. Schmitschulte was married May 17, 1870, to Mary Recker, daughter of H. H. Recker. The following are the names of their children: Elizabeth M., deputy county clerk; Herman J., also a clerk in his father's office; Clara K. and Mary. Mr. and Mrs. Schmitschulte are members of the Catholic church, and they moved in the best social circles of Ottawa.

JACOB RIMER, a pioneer of Sugar Creek township, Putnam county, was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, January 29, 1815, a son of Daniel and Catherine Rimer. Both parents were natives of Luzerne county, Pa., and of German descent, the mother being a daughter of Jeremiah Vandermark, and, at the date of her marriage with Mr. Rimer, a widow, bearing the name of Carey. They were wedded in the Keystone state and came to Ohio about the close of the war of 1812, located at first in Fairfield county, moved thence to Franklin county, and in 1832 came to Putnam county, where the father, who was a farmer, died in 1857, his widow surviving until 1875, when she passed away at about ninety years of age, both being members of the Primitive Baptist church. Their family consisted of five children, viz: Elizabeth, married to Jacob Clevenger, who came to Putnam county in 1830; Jacob, our subject; Jeremiah, farmer and ex-county infirmary director, who died in February, 1894; Daniel, who resides near Columbus Grove, Ohio, and Parmelia, widow of Samuel Hoffman, who died of disease contracted in the army.

Jacob Rimer, whose name opens this sketch, was reared to farming and was chiefly self-educated. When quite a lad, however, he worked for his father on the Lake Erie & Ohio canal, the first built in Ohio, and saw the first boat pass through. When the family first came to Putnam county they stopped with the Clevengers, until they could erect a cabin, then moved upon their own land. Jacob here assisted his father in clearing up and cultivating the farm until his own marriage, in March, 1838, with Elizabeth Rhodes, who was born in Franklin county, Ohio, in 1816, a daughter of Peter and Catherine (Huffman) Rhodes, both of Pennsylvania and of German descent, and who came to Ohio before Columbus was made the capital of the state. They settled first in Franklin county, and in 1831 came to Putnam county when there were but three or four cabins in Lima. One of these was a hewn-log house, with punchoen floors, built for hotel purposes by a Mr. Mitchell, and here Mr. Rhodes passed a night; the next day he made his way through the woods and reached the present site of Vaughnsville, where he entered considerable land and built the first mill on Hog creek.

After his marriage Mr. Rimer settled on eighty acres of land belonging to his wife in the woods and put up a cabin; he owned a colt and his wife owned another; he owned a young cow and his wife also owned a cow, and with this stock they started in life together, but they are now among the wealthiest residents of the county. His cabin was erected where his splendid residence now stands, and on this spot he has lived ever since. At one time Mr. Rimer entered some lands in Union township, but these he later sold and added to his homestead until he owned 320 acres, of which he has cleared all but forty acres and placed in a state of cultivation unexcelled by that of any farm in the county, and improved in a manner hardly equaled. These premises are three miles west of Vaughnsville, nine miles from Delphos, and twelve miles from Lima, and here Mr. Rimer has accumulated a competency through his skill as a farmer and as breeder and dealer in live stock, of which he has always kept the choicest varieties.

When Mr. Rimer made his settlement here the county had not yet been organized. The first county court was held at the house of a Mr. Sarber, near the present town of Kalida, and the presiding judge (Holt) had his seat on the side of a bed. This judge then had the power of appointing the commissioners and other county officers, and as one of the town proprietors granted to Mr. Saber the contract for laying out Kalida, in the task of clearing away the brush, etc., Mr. Rimer was employed as an assistant—the next legislature approving all the acts of the judge and his court, and ordering the coming election in this wilderness. It will thus be seen that our subject has seen the county grow from its incipiency to its present prosperous proportions. After his own prosperity began to assume form, he was for some years compelled to go to Piqua for milling purposes and to haul his surplus wheat to Fremont, where he disposed of it at sixty-eight cents per bushel.

To the parents of Mrs. Elizabeth Rimer were born eight children, all of whom lived to rear familes of their own and to aid in carrying out the enterprises of their father, who was ever ready to assist newcomers with grain or meal, and would divide his last bushel in times of extreme scarcity without extra charge. This philanthropic gentleman died in March, 1839, and in 1840 was followed to the grave by his faithful helpmate. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Rimer was blessed with nine children, of whom one died unnamed in infancy; George W. died in hospital while in the service of his country during the war of the Rebellion; Daniel P. is prominent as a farmer and is the founder of the town of Rimer; Elizabeth J. is the wife of John Beamand, a thriving farmer; James W. is a civil engineer of note at Van Wert and has twice represented his county in the state legislature; Mary J. is married to Benjamin Clevenger; Eleazer is managing the home farm; Lewis H. is a merchant and postmaster at Rimer; Francis M. is engaged in farming. The mother of this family was called to rest December 25, 1894, a devout member of the Primitive Baptist church. The father has always been democratic in his politics, but has never sought public office, although he has served his fellow-citizens as township trustee and has filled several minor offices from a sense of public duty. He also is a consistent member of the Primitive Baptist church, which he freely aids with his means, and whose teachings find in him a truly worthy exemplar. The Rimer family and all their connections have ever been among the foremost in promoting the prosperity and in bettering the interests of the township and county, and certainly no family is more highly respected.

FRANK SCHIMMOLER, a prominent, well known and highly respected farmer of Jackson township, Putnam county, Ohio, is the son of Francis and Mary Catrina (Richtman) Schimmoler, and was born in Glandorf, Putnam county, October 11, 1836. The father was a native of Germany, was born in Osnabruck, Hanover, in the year 1783, and was reared as a farmer and educated in the excellent schools of Germany.

In the year of 1833 Francis Schimmoler came to Glandorf and entered an eighty-acre tract of government land, on which he settled, cleared in part and made his home. Mary Catrina Richtman was also born in Germany about the year 1815. When in the neighborhood of twenty years of age she came to America with a neighbor's family, her parents being dead, and in a few months after her coming was married to the father of our subject, who had paid her passage to the United States. Seven children blessed this union, whose names are as follows: Frank, the eldest, of whom this sketch largely concerns; Dena, who died at the age of two years; John Henry, a farmer of Jackson township; Lizzie, who died at the age of seventeen years; William, of Jennings township; Lewis, of Dayton, Ohio, and August, who died in childhood. In the year 1839 the parents of our subject came to Jackson township, where they at first bought forty-five acres of land and afterward added eighty-two acres more, and then later entered 105 acres, and still later took up sixty-six acres more, on which Frank, our subject, now lives. He was a man of more than ordinary ability and hard-working, good-managing, thrifty and ambitious. He gave efficient aid to many of his country people in securing them good homes in the new world, and was a man widely known and greatly respected. He was a consistent communicant of the Catholic church, and in politics a democrat. He died of cholera, deeply lamented, September 5, 1855, the mother's death having occurred January 30, 1850.

Frank Schimmoler, the subject of this memoir, was reared in the county and received the limited education at that time afforded the live there. The records show Breeling's lots were at the junction of the Turnpike and Findlay Road.

Breeling purchased the lots in Monterey from Thomas Vaughn who had gotten them from Lewis Gander. John and Lewis Gander witnessed one of the transactions. The lots are listed in Monterey, in the year 1866.

A family tradition states that part of the family traveled by covered wagon to the west in the 1850's. This probably was with the Roberts group.

The Breelings were devout members of the Vaughnsville Christian Church. Their home, it was said, was always open to traveling ministers.

The large home had an "el" which was later converted to a post office. Daniel Deafendifer was post master for many years. His wife, and daughter also served.

In the 1895 Atlas, Vaughnsville is listed as having two general stores, one elevator, two blacksmiths and wagon shops, a restaurant, hardware store, sawmill, creamery, and a barber shop. There was also the Blue Goose Saloon by the railroad tracks. Rees H. Turner, who came to the area in 1858, had a carriage making trade.

Farmers in the area entered their best ears of corn in the annual show at Vaughnsville — ten ears of yellow dent, ten of white or ten mixed. The winner had to refund 50^c of prize money to the Association.

The first decoration of soldiers graves was observed in Vaughnsville in 1882, according to a 1908 Lima newspaper.

Those living along what is now Route 189, lived in Mosquito Valley, it was said. That road led to Rimer.

Rimer

Her name was Catherine, but her friends and family called her Kitty. The Vandermark family had traveled from Holland to New Jersey, and settled in Luzerne County, Penn., where there were a number of Dutch families.

At 17, Kitty married John Carey, and within the next few years, had seen three children and her husband die. She was described as a woman of strong character, and great energy and ability. Her home was open to religious services at all times, for she was a devout woman.

Catherine met Daniel Rhymer and they married. The Rhymer family had come to America before the Revolution. By the time they traveled to Ohio, the name evolved to Rimer.

In the winter of 1812, the Daniel Rimer family left their home in Luzerne County on a sled, bound for Ohio country. When they reached Pittsburgh, the snow had melted and they were forced to abandon the sled. The remainder of the trip was made on horseback. There were no bridges west of the Allegheny Mountains at that time, but they finally arrived in Fairfield County.

In 1828, their daughter, Eliza, married Jacob Clevenger, who was leaving for Putnam territory with his brothers. The four young couples left in 1830, and their story has been related.

Two years later, Jacob Rimer arrived in the area, and his parents, Daniel and Catherine, came also. Local histories vary the date of arrival, but they were near the age of 50 when they once again set off for the wilderness. The Rimers settled in Union Township, where they helped clear the town site for Kalida.

Jacob paid in gold coin for land in Sugar Creek Township by the Ottawa River. He stayed with his sister, Eliza Clevenger, while building his cabin. Jacob worked for his father, it is said on the Erie and Ohio canal, and witnessed the first boat pass through. Exactly what his father's trade was, is not recorded.

Near the land Jacob bought, lived the Peter Rhodes family. They came to Putnam in 1820. In March, 1838, Jacob married Elizabeth Rhodes. They both owned a colt and a cow. It was unusual for women to own property, but the Rimers began their married life with land and some livestock.

The Rimers were members of the Old School Baptist Church, as were many of the Sugar Creek and Union Township settlers. Jacob gave land and the wood necessary to build a church just south of his land. The altar was built of solid black walnut, as were the pews. The first minister in the church was Jonathan Ford, the father of Charles Ford, who died in 1980. The church building was in use until about 1910, when it was abandoned and torn down.

Jacob and Elizabeth had six children. As they outgrew the cabin, a two story frame house was built. When they again built a new home, the old frame was used as a bachelor's quarters for the sons of the family. James became a civil engineer and eventually moved to Van Wert, where he served two terms as representative to the legislature.

When Jacob heard that the railroad was coming through, he was determined that a town would be established on the line. To that end, he purchased land. His son, James, platted the town. Another son, Lewis, had a general store. It was also the post office, and freight and passenger station. A huckster wagon operated from the store for some years.

They named it Roxburgh. No traditions within the family state the reason this name was selected. The fancy name was ignored, however, for it was always known as Rimer, and eventually that name was accepted by everyone.

It was a thriving community with a broom factory owned by one of the Dicus family. An elevator and the limestone quarry were primary industries. A grange was active and for a while a Methodist Church was there. A two room frame school with a primary and a grammar room, was there about 1915.

Just down the road on land which belonged to the Jones family, was a station on the electric line which traveled from Lima to Defiance. There was a station building, but nothing else was developed at Jones City.

Dear Helen:

Thank you for you letter. I'm sorry for the delay. I have been waiting for infomation from Columbia Co. on the Dilleys. (a swap on info. with another researcher) but to date, she has not come up with anything more than we know.

I checked the 1870 Hanover census - result enclosed. These names do fit into the local Dilley gen. but add little to what you are seeking.

I have rechecked both wills and estates that were handled without formal wills. Neither check on Lilley or Garringer/Garrison. netted anything of value.

On the Rimer line, I have found the following:

Jacob Rimer
m. Elizabeth Saum 1805-1860
John Rimer
m. Jane Ruggles 1826-1889

Rimer, Rachel
m. Jacob Garrison son of Cornelius Garrison B 1756

Rimer, Susan 1795-1869
m. John Nagle 1793-1875

These names are from the Hanover Green Cemetery Booklet used by H.B. Plumb when he was compiling his local geneologies.

Since we have checked all formal records on these families - until something further turns up - I am afraid we are stymied.

I will remain in touch with my geneology friend/researcher on the Dilley-Garrison families and keep the names active.

If anything comes to light you will be sure to receive it. Right now I feel we have examined all formal sources. In my mind I am comfortable Wm.-L. was from this Dilley family and unless proved differently, would accept these branches as valid.

Also enclosed are some pictures of the Hanover area of Wyo. Valley taken a few weeks ago. It is a lovely section.

If you can tie anything more together that might provide me with a

Jackson Township

- The Committee

Evidences of this area having been inhabited by Indians and prehistoric man have been found in the township. Indian arrows, axes, and pottery come to the surface in plowing the fields.

"Collectors from far and near have carried them away." (1915 Putnam County History) One of the five mounds left in the county by people antedating the Indian is located in the township.

Jackson Township, deep in the Black Swamp region, was one of the last townships to become fully settled.

The Anthony Wayne Trail, the oldest road in the county, was cut through this township from Ft. Recovery to Defiance, along the west bank of the Auglaize River, by General Wayne in 1794. It was the first post road in the county. It was later called the Defiance and Wapakoneta Free Turnpike Road.

The earliest settlers came by this route. Many were from Virginia. They settled on the rich river bottom lands along the Auglaize River before Putnam County was organized in 1834. These river bottom farmers had productive land by simply clearing the timber off. This land required no drainage and would produce any kind of a crop in abundance (excepting when there would be devastating high water in the summer after the crops were started). The country then was full of game and fur bearing animals. The price of fur was high and furs could easily be transported to market, and in this way the settlers obtained cash for their simple needs.

At the time of the first settlements and land grants, Putnam County was not organized but was a part of Williams County; hence the old land patents were originally recorded in the recorder's office at Bryan, Ohio. Some of these early land grants were: Elias Wallen, Aug. 9, 1824; John W. White, Apr. 15, 1827; Rufus Carey, Aug. 9, 1824. Other early settlers were: 1823, John Harter; 1825, Thaddeus Harris; 1830, Thomas Carder, 1833, Philip Joseph, George Comer, Edward Ladd, John Heddrick.

The early records of Jackson Township were destroyed by fire. Most people agree that the township was formed in the early 1830's, probably about 1832.

Originally the township was laid out 36 miles square. But by the changes of 1848 and 1850 the following deletions and additions were made: 12 sections were taken from Jackson and given to Jennings, 4 sections were taken from Jackson and given to Monterey; and 6 sections were taken from Perry and added to Jackson Township. So now Jackson Township consists of 26 sections.

After the settlement of the river farms there was little attempt to do much with the swampy lands, other than lumbering for ship timber. These logs were marketed via the Miami and Erie Canal in the western part of the township.

About 1879 when drainage laws were passed, the township began to make extensive improvements in clearing and draining the land. At the same time the Cloverleaf Railroad came through the county. Both these factors helped to open the township to settlement.

German immigrant families began to buy the swamp land, clear, and drain it to make very productive farms. This was not accomplished overnight. Work was back-breaking, and expenses were heavy because of the taxation for drainage. Ague and malaria were prevalent because of the swamps. But by perseverance and unbelievably hard work the land was cleared and drained, resulting in some of the best farm land in the county today.

There are no schools or churches in the township today. Children are bused to nearby schools at Kalida, Ft. Jennings, and Ottoville. Families attend churches in those areas, too.

There are no towns in the township today. Muntana was platted in 1881 by George Skinner and Huntstown in 1883 by Samuel Starkey. Douglas was the third town listed in the 1915 Putnam County History.

Roads in the township are very good. U.S. 224, State Routes 114, 634, and 190 as well as many county roads provide excellent transportation facilities.

Where once only a vast trackless swamp existed, today one finds productive farms, well-kept homes, and a prosperous thriving Jackson Township.

Jennings Township

- Marie M. Uhrich
- Alfred (Jack) Schimmoeller

The area of Jennings Township as it exists today is not the same as it was in 1840 when originally laid out. In 1848 the State Legislature created Auglaize County. At that time they gave 18 sections of the south end of the township, including the entire city of Delphos east of the canal, to Allen County. Twelve sections of Jackson Township were transferred to Jennings Township. Then in 1850 they gave 2 sections of this area to the newly created Monterey Township. Now there are 28 sections in the township.

Portrait & Rec. of Putnam Co. Bo married William Wamsley, who died in the army—she also having passed away and leaving one child; Wilson D. is a resident of Continental, Ohio, and Hollis B. is the subject of this sketch. Moses Rice continued to reside on his farm until about 1854, when he moved to Pandora and engaged in general merchandising for about eight years, and then retired to the farm, where his death took place in April, 1862. He had been reared in the Presbyterian church, within the pale of which he was called to his everlasting home, deeply mourned by his surviving relatives and friends.

Hollis B. Rice, whose name opens this sketch, was about sixteen years of age when his father died, after which sad event he assisted in the management of the home farm for his mother. In March, 1869, he married Miss Samantha Mills, a daughter of Almarion Mills, of Tiffin, Ohio. Mr. Mills was a mason and plasterer by trade, was a public-spirited citizen, and filled several township offices; he died in 1889, the father of the following children: Francis E., who served through the Civil war; Samantha, wife of subject; James, of Toledo, Ohio; Cortez; Laura, married to J. M. Stuter, of Putnam county, who was also a soldier in the late war; Della, now Mrs. Charles Evans, of Toledo; Simon, mason and plasterer, of Leipsic, Ohio, and Maggie, who died unmarried. The mother of this family still survives at the age of seventy-five years, a devout member of the Methodist Episcopal church. The children born to the union of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis B. Rice were six in number, of whom four still survive, viz: John E., still single, and Nellie M., Amy R., and Myron, at home with their parents. Mrs. Rice is also a fervent member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Although Hollis B. Rice devoted a few years of his earlier manhood to road building and other public improvements, he has given almost all his attention to his farm, which he has brought to a wonderful condition of productiveness, and never fails in making a crop; he also raises sufficient live stock for home use, and some is always left over for sale. He has won for himself an untarnished name, his integrity never in any instance having been doubted, and his industry and skill as a husbandman are universally conceded.

FRANCIS S. RIMER, of the firm of Rimer & Meyers, merchants of Kalida, Union township, Putnam county, Ohio, was born in the county January 14, 1863, a son of George D. and Mary K. (Dicus) Rimer. George D. Rimer, the father, was born in Luzerne county, Pa., about 1838, and was a son of Jacob Rimer, also a native of the Keystone state, and of Dutch parentage. He was reared a farmer, and became the father of three children, viz: John, a farmer of Perry township, Putnam county, Ohio; Mary, wife of George Kerry, a poultry dealer at Elida, and George, father of our subject. In 1841 he came to Putnam county and entered a farm, which he cleared from the forest and resided on until his death.

George D. Rimer came to Putnam county with his parents in 1841, and was here reared to farming. He was educated in the common schools, but was well qualified for teaching, a profession he followed for several years, beginning at the age of twenty. About 1862 he married Mary K. Dicus, daughter of Jacob and Hannah Dicus, natives of Maryland. Mrs. Mary K. Rimer was born in Putnam county, Ohio, in 1845, and was a young girl when she was taken to Delphos, Ohio, by her parents, where her father followed the trade of carpenter; he was a whig in politics and in religion a Baptist. To George D. and Mary K. Rimer were born four children, viz: Francis, our subject; Georgia, the wife of George Shriver, a farmer of Paulding county, Ohio; William M., a furniture dealer in Kalida, and John M., on the home farm.

Francis S. Rimer was, like his forefathers, brought up to husbandry, and received the education usually granted to farmers' lads. In 1886, on the 17th day of February, he married Miss Mary L. Haller, who was born in Paulding county, Ohio, in 1864, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Haller, the former a native of Pennsylvania, and the latter of Canada. To the union of Mr. and Mrs. Rimer have been born two children—Paul M., who died at the age of four years, and George N., born December 27, 1893. In 1886, the year of his marriage, Mr. Rimer bought an interest in a tile factory, in which business he was engaged nearly eight years; in April, 1893, he sold this interest and entered the hardware business, buying out a Mr. Cross, and is making quite a success. Mr. and Mrs. Rimer are members of the Methodist Episcopal church, and in politics he is a republican. He is also a member of Kalida lodge, No. 280, F. & A. M., and has a high standing in the community both as a business man and a valued citizen.

MRS. CAROLINE RIDENOUR, relict of the late Henry Ridenour, and a daughter of Isaac and Adeline (Palmer) Allen, was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, June 16, 1836. Her father was also a native of that county, and was born in 1801, a son of John Allen, who was a native of London, England, and while still a young man had come to America. He served in the Revolutionary war with Washington, and after peace was declared he crossed the mountains into the almost unbroken region of the valley of the beautiful Ohio, then known as the northwest territory, and settled in Columbiana county, when white men were few. There he obtained a tract of timbered land, which he cleared and converted into a fine farm, but not without having to undergo many hardships and privations. Here he spent the remainder of his life in the quiet way of the Quakers, for he was a member of that faith, in which he died, in 1821. He was known as a substantial and honest man, was a whig in politics, and had been twice married, becoming the father of five sons and three daughters: David, Benjamin, Emer, John, Sallie, Martha, Lydia and Isaac.

Isaac, the youngest son, was given an education in a little log school-house not far from the home. When not in school he worked on the farm, and learned the blacksmith's trade, and was recognized as a master of his trade. He believed that if anything was worth doing at all it was worth doing well. He married Adeline, the daughter of James and Catherine (Green) Palmer, who was born August 8, 1810, in Loudoun county, Va., and came with her parents by wagon to Columbiana county, Ohio, where they were early settlers. After their marriage Mr. Allen followed his trade in Columbiana county until 1838, when he moved to Athens county, where he continued at his trade and engaged in farming. In 1853 he moved by wagon to Putnam county, where he farmed, having been compelled, after a time, to give up his trade on account of ill health. Fraternally he was a Mason, having joined the lodge at Kalida in 1855, and was also a member of the Shawnee commandery of Knights Templar at Lima. In politics he was a whig, and took much interest in its victories. He was much respected and honored by all. His death occurred February 8, 1886, his good and faithful wife having preceded him on the long journey home, she having died in November, 1873, and had been a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal church. The early start on the enlargemen of the facilities of several of the state institutions for the Insane, as well as those for penal offendtrs, is indicated by the department of publi works, where the plans are bein prepared. The enlargements call fo the expenditure of more than $2,000,000 of the $3,500,000 which is available for this purpose. All of th state institutions are crowded fa beyond their capacity, and the nee of erecting new buildings and in creasing the facilities for takin care of the state's wards has bee evident for several years. Over half million dollars wil be spent o the erection of new cottages a Orient, while the hospitals in Dayto Toledo, Massillon, Athens, Gallipoli and Cleveland will all have substan tial increasts made in theircapacity New dormitories at the soldiers' hom at Sandusky and the women's reform atory at Marysville are now in cours of construction, while plans are bein prepared to resume work on the ne penitentiary near London, and in creased facilities at the boys' indus trial school, Lancaster, and the re formatory at Mansfield. Du ing the winter months few parol were granted because prisoners cou not find work, and the board wise refused to free them when they h no work in sight. With factories a manufacturing plants resuming acti ities, there is a greater demand f these men and the board is mo lenient with their paroles. Mo than 50 of the prisoners pardon during the month of April accept positions with Ohio farmers and r ports show they are doing excelle work, and most of them maki good.

on p. 196 the following appears;

WILLIAM H. GOOD, a prosperous and very intelligent farmer on Union township, Putnam county, Ohio was born in Fairfield county, July 16, 1845, and is the son of Abraham and Malinda (ASKENS) Good, of whom a brief sketch is given above, and at the age of six or seven years was brought to Putnam county be his parents, and here he has ever since made his home. He was trained tp agricultural pursuits and became an extraordinarily good husbandman. Nov. 3, 1867, he married Miss Hannah (CLEVENGER), daughter of Jacob and Eliza (RIMER) Clevenger, one of the pioneer families of the township. To this union have been born three children, viz: Benjamin, a farmer of Union township, born May 27, 1869; William, born Nov. 14, 1872; and Perry Albert, born Jan. 20, 1874. Mrs. Hannah Good's birth occured in Putnam county, Nov. 26, 1847.
Before marriage Mr. Good had, for two or more years, followed carpentering, a trade he had mastered in addition to the vocation of farming, but after his marriage he at once settled down to farming in Sugar Creek township, where he lived eight years; and then came to Union township and for five years reseded on the Clevenger homestead. At odd times for thirteen years he has farmed and attended this calling while working at his trade of carpentering, and also passed, during this interval, a second occupancy of the Clevenger homestead, lasting seven years. About 1891 he settled on his present farm, and in 1893 erected the handsome dwelling he now occipies. In politics he is a republican, and has filled several minor offices, including that of school director, but has never manifested any particular desire for political distinction or office holding. As a member of the Christian church he has always been prominent, ardent, and active, and of this religious denomination his wife and children are also consistent and devoted members. Mr. Good was appointed the guardian of Laura RAGER, an orphan, who has since made her home with his family and is being reared with all the tender care that would or could have been bestowed upon her bu her own parents, Mr. Good having fulfilled his sacred trust with conscientious fidelity. He is one of the most substantiol citizens of the township and a highly esteemed and honored gentleman.

as willing to frighten her [illegible] as his pocket; a girl who thinks her own brother quite as fine a fellow as some other girl's brother. Constant love, high esteem and a more honored place in the home guaranteed. Employment assured to all qualified applicants. Address, Mother, Home Office."

The tramp nuisance is becoming a perplexing question in some parts of the county, says an exchange. The fellows will not work, and during the absence of the head of the house, frighten his wife and insult his daughters. The farmer finds them in his hay in the morning, sometimes smoking, so reckless is their disregard of danger. The number of tramps who nightly ask shelter in the town prison averages from five to a dozen. They are allowed to go into the lock-up, and about ten o'clock at night the key of the outer door is turned on them, and they remain lounging about the corridors and sleeping in the cells. Coal is supplied, and the quarters kept warm, so that they can lie down and sleep comfortably without covering. In the morning they are turned out to commence the tramp for something to eat.

The daily press contains one long, unending record of suicides. Financial troubles, unrequited affections and more often despondency resulting from the grip affliction are assigned as the almost unvarying causes. The number of people who voluntarily hasten their departure for that "from whence no traveler ever returns," according to Shakespeare's statistics, is surprisingly and alarmingly large. Nobody nowadays is exempt from the suicidal mania. It attacks the old, the young, the middle aged, the rich, the impecunious and everybody of every degree and every condition in life. It is infectious, it is in the air, and soon there will have to be waged a war against suicidal germs just as nowadays the medical fraternity are making a vigorous fight against typhus, consumption and all the other deadly germs that are likely to shorten surreptiously the span of human life. Our daily prayer will soon be amended to include, "and may the Lord preserve us from all suicidal intentions."

Jacob Deffenbaugh was in Van Wert county last week, visiting Grandma Deffenbaugh, who is in rather poor health this winter.

The revival meeting at the Ottawa River Church closed on the 25th of January with good results. There were nine added to the church.

W. F. McClane is getting together the material for a new frame barn.

A good deal of ice was put up by our citizens last week. The ice was only about 4½ inches thick but of excellent quality.

The funeral of J. M. Vandermark, who was killed by his horse kicking him on the 21st of January, 1894, was largely attended. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Noffsinger, who was assisted by Rev. McCloud, at the Ottawa River Church. Mr. Vandermark was just in the prime of life, being about 35 years of age, and was a hard working man, a good and useful citizen, and will be greatly missed in this neighborhood. He leaves a wife and four small children.

Rev. Noffsinger was called last Sunday, Feb. 4th, to Gomer, to preach the funeral sermon of Mrs. Lucinda Clevenger, of that place. Also, on the same day to Columbus Grove to attend the funeral of Mr. J. R. Rimer, who died on the 2d of the month. Mrs Clevenger and Mr. Rimer were both pioneer settlers of Putnam county. Mr. Rimer came here in the year 1832 and settled in Union township, south of Kalida. He was well known in the county and had just closed his second term as Infirmary Director of Putnam county. He had just entered his 75th year at the time of his death. The funeral was preached at the Christian Church at Columbus Grove.

Rev. Noffsinger will go this week to the Mt. Zion Church, located in the north part of Monroe township, this county, to hold a revival meeting.

VAUGHNSVILLE.

Miss Esther Watkins, came home from Lima, Saturday, to stay over Sunday. She is attending school there.

Dr. E. B. McKinley made a business trip to Bluffton last Monday.

Many parties in our town were putting up ice last week. We would judge it will be a cool place here during the long hot days of summer, from the amount of ice that has been put up.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Marshall, of Arlington, Nebraska, visited their cousin, E. B. McKinley, and other friends here for a few days last week. Mr. Marshall is a prosperous farmer and stockman of Nebraska. He and the Dr. not having seen each other for many years had a good time talking and living over their boyhood days.

We understand that J. E. Watkins has contracted to put up several new buildings next summer. Jack is a hustler and deserves patronage.

James Rimer, of Van Wert, gave us a short call while passing through our village a few days ago.

Miss Eva Diefenderfer returned home last Saturday from a two weeks' visit with friends in Hancock and Hardin counties.

Ed. Mell, who has been visiting friends in this and the neighborhood of West Cairo, returned to his home in Iowa last Tuesday.

Dr. Henderson was laid up for a few days with the grip.

Mr. Cook, a colored man, gave a very interesting lecture in the M. E. Church on last Sunday afternoon. Subject, "Virginia's Chimney Rock."

The Christian's are holding revival services here with good results, they having had to this date some twenty-four accessions.

Friday afternoon, Drs. Beardsley, of Ottawa, and Williams and Watterson, of Kalida, operated on John Shane, a day laborer. An incision was made in or near the abdomen, and fully a quart of pus taken therefrom. We learn that relief was immediate.

The members of the Putnam County Pioneer Association met pursuant to adjournment in the Presbyterian church at Kalida, on Saturday, September 1, 1894.

The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year:

pretentions, but abounded in good deeds of humble, practical christian life. He died in the cheerful hope inspired by the blessed promises of the gospel of Christ. It might be said of him: "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright man, for the end of that man is peace." He was interred in the Cuba cemetery on Thursday, Oct. 12, Elder G. W. Cline, of McComb, conducting the services. His mortal remains sleep in sight of the farm he loved in life. Let him rest in peace.

BROCKMAN BROWER

Was born in Randolph county, North Carolina, Nov. 20, 1816, and died at his home near Forest Grove, Putnam county, Ohio, on Monday, July 2, 1894, aged 77 years, 7 months and 12 days. He emigrated to this county along with his parents, Frederick and Helen Brower, in 1833. He was married to Miss Angeline Stahlnaker Feb. 4, 1841, who died Dec. 18, 1849, aged 25 years. For his second wife he married Mrs. Elizabeth Wisterman on June 6, 1863, who died Aug. 30, 1892, aged 75 years. Of the two unions there are six children living—two of the first and four of the second wife. He was buried on Tuesday, July 3, beside his two wives in the family cemetery near Cuba. Mr. Brower's father died May 13, 1875, aged 81 years. His mother died Nov. 22, 1889, at the age of 89 years.

In politics Mr. Brower was first a Whig and voted for William Henry Harrison in 1840; afterwards a Republican and voted for Benjamin Harrison. He was a great admirer of Gen. John C. Fremont, and when the General ran for the Presidency he made a wager that he never would shave off his beard until Fremont was elected President. Fremont was not elected and consequently he lost the bet and wore a full beard as long as he lived. During his life he held numerous important township offices; also the office of postmaster at the village of Cuba for a period of 28 years, being relieved on Aug. 30, 1892, the office being discontinued at that time.

Naturally of a friendly disposition he had the respect of all with whom he came in contact. His strict honesty leaves his name without reproach. His decisions were always final in neighborhood disputes and differences. He was an indulgent father, a kind neighbor and an earnest christian.

MRS. BERSHEBA CROW

Was born in Randolph county, North Carolina, Feb. 14, 1819, and died at her home near Forest Grove, Putnam county, Ohio, Oct. 31, 1893, aged 74 years, 8 months and 17 days. She emigrated from North Carolina along with her parents, Frederick and Helen Brower, in the year 1833, when she was 11 years of age, and settled one-half mile east of what since has been called the village of Cuba. She was married to William R. Crow Dec. 29, 1840, who died Feb. 19, 1891. She joined the Disciple Church along with her husband in 1841 and in 1879 she transferred her membership to the United Brethren church. She lived a consistent christian for 52 years. DEUTSCHLAND IS UNLOADED

Ship's Rise Reveals She Measures Only 250 Feet.

WIDTH LESS THAN TWENTY-FIVE FEET

Mayor Will Give Dinner to Captain and Crew.

Indications at Pier Are That the Submarine Will Make an Early Departure — Orders Given for 300 Barrels of Oil.

Washington, July 13.—Ambassador Spring-Rice, of Great Britain, this afternoon talked for fifteen minutes with Acting Secretary of State Polk about the status of the German submarine, Deutschland, in Baltimore.

Ambassador Spring-Rice denied that he filed today with Mr. Polk a protest against the vessel being rated by this government as a merchantman. He said nothing further would be done until the state department had officially announced its decision concerning the status of the submarine.

May Leave Soon.

Baltimore, July 13.—When will the merchant submarine, Deutschland, leave this port for its dash to the other side?

This was the main question discussed here today. There were indications that plans were afoot to rapidly load the Deutschland and slip her out speedily on her way back to Germany. No one in authority would say when she would depart.

The unloading was finished early today.

Ambassador Expected.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, will come here today to congratulate Captain Paul Koenig and to inspect the Deutschland. Mayor Preston will give a dinner tonight to Captain Paul Koenig and his officers.

There were many indications today, at the Deutschland's pier that she is to make an early departure. Rush orders had been given for nearly 300 barrels of oil. The crew of the Deutschland was not transferred last night to quarters aboard the liner, Neckar, which lies on the east side of the McLean pier.

Tug Brought Over.

Another significant move transpired when the tug, Thomas F. Timmins, which maintained the two weeks vigil off the capes, was brought over from the Rhode shipyard, where she has been docked for repairs.

The Deutschland showed some four feet additional out of the water than before unloading commenced on Tuesday, and her draft was less than eleven feet when the last case of dye was discharged. The ship's rise revealed that the estimates of her size have been exaggerated and instead of being more than 300 feet long and thirty feet wide, her width is less than twenty-five feet and her length no more than 250 feet.

HYPHENATES MUST BE LOYAL, SAYS WILSON

President Addresses Citizenship Convention in Washington.

Washington, July 13.—President Wilson today served notice on "hyphenates" and "newcomers" that they must be loyal to the United States whether they are pleased with this country or not. He charged that political activity of any organization of naturalized Americans is "absolutely incompatible with the idea of loyalty."

The president addressed the citizenship convention, in session, called here by the bureau of naturalization of the department of labor, to study best methods for teaching foreigners what is necessary to become a citizen of the United States.

"We have been disturbed recently by certain symptoms which have shown themselves in our body politic." President Wilson said, referring to some naturalized Americans. "They have gone so far as to draw themselves apart and have been more loyal to their native country than to America."

DOWLING OR CLARKE FOR SUPREME BENCH

Nomination Will Soon Be Sent to Senate.

Washington, July 13.—It was stated authoritatively this afternoon in official circles that either Judge Victor J. Dowling, of New York, or Judge John H. Clarke, of Cleveland will be nominated by President Wilson as a successor to Charles E. Hughes as an associate justice of the supreme court of the United States.

Justice Dowling will get the place, it was said, if the president decides that the appointment should go to the east. Otherwise Judge Clarke will be named.

White House officials said the nomination probably will go to the senate late today or tomorrow.

TELLS PEOPLE TO KEEP COOL

Doctor Says Epidemic Is No Cause for Panic.

PSYCHOLOGY OF FEAR PLAYS A LARGE PART

Government Starts Fight on Infantile Paralysis.

Terror Over Disease in New York City Causes Tenants in Tenements To Throw Up Leases Without Warning.

New York, July 13.—Twenty-four deaths, from infantile paralysis, was the official record today for the past twenty-four hours, an increase of seven over the day before. Of these eighteen occurred in Brooklyn. There are now 683 cases of the disease being treated in hospitals, most of them in Kings county.

Red Tape Eliminated.

Washington, July 13.—All red tape was done away with today to enable the United States bureau of public health, with its wonderful facilities, to go to the aid of the New York health department in the fight against infantile paralysis.

As a result, under the direction of Surgeon General Victor Blue, the assistant surgeon general, Dr. W. C. Rucker, has set aside all other work to direct the government's end of the campaign.

"We are in this fight to a finish," declared Dr. Rucker. "And we are not afraid of the end. One thing ought to be made clear to the people by the newspapers. There is absolutely no cause for a panic. Real and serious as the situation is, all fear should be eliminated.

"The psychology of fear plays a big part in every epidemic.

"We can only take sensible precautions in the face of what we do not know. We all know that it is important to keep clean. There is no need to go to ridiculous extremes.

"The one big thing I wish all would bear in mind, is the advice to the people to keep cool—I mean cool-headed. You will always find that in such a case as this there will be a reaction.

"I believe that a panic in the congested districts will reflect itself in the disease. Children are cooped up who ought to be out.

"This government, and all the facilities at the command of the government, will be used in aid of this fight, and we'll win it. That goes without saying. Let the people do their part. Keep cool, be cheerful and beyond all else, let not fear enter the mind. There is no reason for it."

Property Owners Lose.

New York, July 13.—City officials today turned their attention to the panic caused by the epidemic of infantile paralysis and the fear that the plague could not be controlled. The terror has already caused immense loss to property owners. Entire blocks of tenements, in which the disease has appeared, have been deserted. Tenants have thrown up their leases without any warning.

The situation will be discussed at a meeting of medical men tonight. At this session a report will be made on the work that has been done toward isolating the germ of the disease. Yesterday's announcement that the germ of poliomyelitis had been isolated was started at the health bureau today to have been premature but the physicians are hopeful that an encouraging report will be made tonight.

Efforts To Open Country.

Washington, July 13.— Acting on the theory that New York City and state have ample financial resources with which to combat the epidemic of infantile paralysis, the United States public health service today is planning to turn its chief efforts to the open country. All the force of the new work of the big scientific branch of the government is to be turned toward preventing the interstate spread of the infantile paralysis scourge and in assisting communities already attacked which have less resources than New York City.

It was pointed out that other cities of the country do not have the extensive hospital, quarantine and sanitary facilities of New York, and that it is the duty of the government to do its work where the greatest need is felt.

Battles To Free Orpet of Charge of Murder.

Waukegan, Ills., July 13.—Attorney Ralph Potter continued today his oral battling to free Will Orpet of charges of murdering his discarded school girl sweetheart, Marion Lambert.

Potter termed the whole case of the state as "rot, bizarre, fantastic, unreasonable rot."

"Just think of it," he said. "a twenty-year-old boy trying to murder a girl with poison that would make her drop dead in her tracks. The mind of the poisoner doesn't work along these lines."

LEWIS' OPINION ON NEW TREATY

Senator Says Russo-Japanese Agreement Is Hurtful.

DECLARES AMERICA WILL LOSE ITS PLACE IN SUN

Thinks United States May Be Forced into War.

Believes Foreign Policy Is in Retaliation of Exclusion of the Asiatics—Purges Action To Have Rights Preserved.

In the following article, on the effect the Russo-Japanese treaty will have on the United States, Senator James Hamilton Lewis makes the prediction that this country will "lose its place in the sun" or eventually be forced into war. Senator Lewis is the author of a resolution, now pending in the senate, calling upon the state government to ascertain the effects of the treaty on the United States.

[SENATOR J. HAMILTON LEWIS]
Written for the International News Service.

Washington, July 13.—My interest in the Russo-Japanese pact was aroused as I studied the question for the last year. My suspicions of the objects and purposes were awakened when I noted that France and England, within one certain week, consummated their preparations to monopolize the trade opportunities of Europe and tendered to the world their suggestions which brought all the present allies of France and England into a trade understanding as against all other countries.

At the same time and within the same week there developed on the other side of the world, in Asia, by Japan and Russia, a treaty arrangement that gave to Japan and Russia the control of Asiatic trade and the Asiatic privileges of public affairs as against all other countries.

Adopt Similar Processes.

It will be noted that France and England consummated their object, co-operating with their European allies, at the same time their Asiatic allies—Japan and Russia—consummated their understanding. Therefore, it is also noted that at the time Japan and Russia effected their understanding, their European allies adopted a similar process. All of this showing that both actions in each hemisphere was at the instance and direction of the other. These matters have been under consideration for a year. When they came forth they brought with them similar import from Asia and Europe, both in common operating against interests of the United States.

The whole tariff question is as new for the future as it was after the revolutionary war. All the past is broken up. New formations must be made. Certain raw material of the world must come into America for America to make up that raw material into the manufactured goods, to be sold to the world. On the other hand, certain manufactured goods of Europe and Asia must be restricted in proper bounds to prevent the new undertakings we have entered upon, made necessary by the European war, from being drowned out of existence, by the deluge of cheap foreign manufactured goods.

War Might Result.

If the arrangement of Europe and Asia is to eliminate Germany and the Teutonic people from any participation in the world's commercial affairs, and likewise the United States, this would force the United States to be confined to North and South America, or to retaliate against this course and to be met by these European and Asiatic countries by opposition to the retaliation, carrying that opposition to the extent that such is usually carried—war.

We are naming a tariff commission for the purpose of dealing with these questions equitably with all people and all countries. These arrangements by Japan and Russia, France and England, each to control the sphere in which they exist, would make the tariff commission of the United States ineffectual, and would serve to bottle the United States in the western hemisphere and confine us within the bounds of the Atlantic and Pacific, the St. Lawrence and the Panama canal, practically shutting us out from the world and taking us from our "place in the sun."

I believe that the Japan-Russo policy is in retaliation for our excluding these Asiatics and because of certain provisions of our immigration bill. But as these Asiatic countries have the privilege of excluding our people, if they choose, they must not be allowed to exclude our goods and deny us commercial privileges in the world without giving us a hearing and without allowing us first to set forth our protest, declare our rights and seek to have them recognized by peaceful and statesman-like methods.

Therefore, my resolution was to give notice that United States should busy itself to negotiate with all of these foreign countries named to have its rights preserved, the doors of the world's commerce opened, and the privilege of competition upon the seas and the land afforded America upon the merits of its goods and the honor of its people.

ASKS WILSON TO ACT IN CASEMENT CASE

Government Is Trying To Prevent Execution.

Washington, July 13.—Senator James A. O'Gorman, of New York urged President Wilson to direct Ambassador Page at London to take steps toward preventing the execution of Sir Roger Casement by the British authorities.

Senator O'Gorman later said the president had assured him that this government is doing all within its power to prevent the execution, and that it would take such steps as it could with propriety. The president did not give Senator O'Gorman a direct answer, however, to his plea that Ambassador Page be instructed to take up the matter formally with the British government.

ships beyond the three-mile limit and to make seizures where culpability is shown, is not yet effective.

Protest Is Received.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Great Britain's formal protest against the seizure of the Tomako was laid before the state department today by Henry G. Chilton, British charge.

The British case was presented in a note, which is understood to offer the contention that the Tomako was registered from Nassau, a British possession, and was operated by a Nova Scotia firm.

Would Make Capital Dry.

Washington, Jan. 3.—A program of prohibition enforcement so drastic that it would bar drinking congressmen from the floor of the house and prohibit American diplomats abroad from taking a drink, was presented to congress today by Representative William D. Upshaw, Democrat, of Georgia, the leading dry champion of the house.

As a start on his program, Upshaw introduced a resolution which if passed, would prevent members of congress from entering the chamber if they "were found to be under the influence of intoxicants," or if they were found to have in their offices liquor, "illegally acquired."

Upshaw proposed twelve measures, the whole constituting what he described as a "rum-proof, booze-tight, clean-up program," and he delivered the longest speech of the present session in explaining it and calling for more rigorous enforcement.

His program included:

First—Congress to "clean around its own door," by disciplining drinking congressmen.

Second—Immediate deportation of all aliens violating liquor laws.

Third—Cancellation of citizenship for Americans who go abroad and engage in the smuggling industry.

Fourth—Make buyers of liquor equally guilty with the sellers.

Would Confiscate Liquor.

Fifth—Confiscation by the government of all liquor now in bond.

Sixth—Stop all manufacturers of intoxicants by private concerns.

Seventh—Make the prohibition bureau independent and the director amenable to the president only.

Eighth—Put all prohibition agents under civil service.

Ninth—Require pledge of total abstinence of all federal office holders, including diplomats, cabinet members, army and navy officers, and "the executive guillotin for all such appointees who are known to drink the liquor outlawed by our constitution."

Tenth—Employ the army and navy to stop smuggling.

Eleventh—Cancellation of charter of all national banks that accept deposits from bootleggers and prosecution of all financial institutions that extend facilities to smugglers and bootleggers.

Twelfth—Demand that all foreign governments cease having liquor in their embassies and legations in Washington.

GREER DENIES CLINE THEORY

Purviance, Charles Chaplin's leading woman, after Miss Normand had called him. It is Cline's theory that Greer went to Dines' apartment as a self-appointed hero, and, when on his arrival at Dines' home, he was scoffed at and told to leave, the shooting followed.

Miss Normand, questioned a second time by the police in an effort to clear up conflicting stories as to just what preceded the shooting, said:

Actress' Story.

"When Greer came in where we were, he said something about it being time for me to go. I remember Mr. Dines also said something about why he didn't see why I should be dictated to by my chauffeur and the next thing I knew Greer had fired the shots and Dines was on the floor.

"It was all a surprise and happened so hurriedly I know little of what happened."

Miss Normand also said that she could not see how Greer was infatuated with her as their relations had always been that of employer and employee.

"I simply can't understand it at all," Miss Normand said.

Mrs. Edith Burns, companion and chaperon for Miss Normand, was questioned by the police and corroborated that portion of the story told by Greer that she ordered him to call for Miss Normand at Dines' apartment a few moments before the shooting.

Anticipates Trouble.

Greer admitted to the police that before going after Miss Normand he anticipated trouble with Dines and armed himself with Miss Normand's revolver.

Mrs. Burns spoke highly of Greer, stating he was a very quiet fellow, dependable and trustworthy and that he was very much devoted to Miss Normand.

Miss Purviance, in a statement today, declared she met Dines a year ago and while they were "more or less" engaged, Dines had never given her an engagement ring. She admitted she was very fond of him.

Miss Purviance is said not to have slept since the shooting and was on the verge of illness today as a result.

NOTES OF SPORT

St. Paul hopes to complete two new municipal golf courses this year.

Nine tournaments including several state and sectional title events, are on the winter golf card at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

A large entry list is reported for the Kentucky state bowling championship, which is to get under way at Louisville on January 14.

Champion Joe Lynch, who is campaigning in the Middle West and South, is to take on Eddie McKenna, of Denver, in a fifteen-round contest at New Orleans, January 18.

More than 500 teams are expected to compete in the annual Elks National Bowling association tournament, which is to be entertained in Detroit during the first two weeks of February.

Winnipeg is making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the twenty-sixth annual bonspiel of the Manitoba Curling association, which is to start in the Western metropolis on February 5.

Twenty-six athletes, each of whom holds one or more championship titles or world's records, have received special invitations to participate in the annual indoor games of the Wilco A. A., to be held in Brooklyn next month.

The cream of the runners, hurdlers, leapers, and so on, will participate in the thirty-sixth annual invitation handicap track games and relay carnival of the Boston Athletic association, to be held in the Boston arena, February 2.

Sportsmen and women from several states, including some of the most notable dog fanciers and exhibitors in America, are included in the list of twenty-three judges selected to officiate at the twelfth annual show of the Eastern Dog club, which is to be held in Boston the latter part of February.

Five of the eight clubs of the International baseball league have decided to do their spring training in Georgia. The champion Baltimore Orioles will pitch camp at Columbus, the Toronto club will get into condition at Macon, the Rochester club at Savannah, Reading at Albany, and Buffalo at Rome.

Fifteen ranking stars of the tennis firmament will compete in the second annual invitation tournament of the Buffalo Tennis and Squash club, to be held February 10-12. In addition many other players of prominence are expected to compete in the tournament, which will be one of the outstanding events of the indoor tennis season.

Figures issued by Harvard university show that tennis is the favorite sport among students of that institution. Squash racquets comes second, followed in turn by track, rowing and basketball. Though football is the favorite sport of the spectator, it yields prominence to the foregoing list, so far as the students engaged are concerned.

JAIL OR REVOCATION OF LICENSE, BUCKLEY CURE

New Mayor Determined To Break Up Speeding.

TO TREAT 'EM SAME AS BOOTLEGGERS, HE SAYS

Declares Bootleggers and Auto Speeders Cause More Deaths Than Other Law Violators.

Mayor M. L. Buckley has had a number of complaints against automobile speeding in the city.

One school teacher made two complaints that she had narrow escapes from being struck by the same speeding autoist after getting off a street car, while others have reported similar occurrences. In most of the cases the speeders were passing the street car without regard for passengers.

In setting forth his stand on speeders this morning, Mayor Buckley said that he expected to handle them the same as bootleggers for the reason that these two forms of law violators were responsible for more deaths and injuries than any others.

It is the new mayor's plan to keep a record of the machine numbers given him where the speed limit is violated and the name of the informant will be kept confidential. Then should these violators be taken into custody later by the police they will not be able to plead a first violation.

Instead of only a fine, Mayor Buckley says he will attach a jail sentence or revoke the license. He is determined to stop speeding.

Game Saturday Night.

Probably one of the best basket-ball teams that has been seen in action on the local floor this season will be the Plain City team which will clash with the Isaly Dairy team at the Marion Athletic hall over the market on north State street Saturday evening. All of the players are in excellent condition and hope to be able to have "Mother" Hubbard in the line-up and take the Plain City team into camp. This will be another Ladies' night and the fairer sex will be admitted without charge. As a preliminary to the big game which will start at 8:30 o'clock, the team of the mailing bench of the Marion Star will play the team of the Bucyrus Telegraph-Forum, this game starting at 7:15 o'clock. This double bill of a high class with the fact that the gentler sex will be admitted without charge is expected to draw a crowd which will fill the hall.

C. A. Stewart, first vice president of the Ohio Spiritualists' association, of Springfield, will lecture and give messages at the First Spiritualist church, No. 131 1-2 north Main street, at 7:30 o'clock next Sunday evening.

First United Brethren Revival.

The revival at the First United Brethren church increases in interest and attendance each night, and is awakening the church and leading to a heart searching and a consecration of lives. Dr. Patterson is bringing stirring gospel messages that present the truth so forcibly, that saint and sinner are receiving just what is so much needed in this day of "Isms."

Those hearing the sermon on "Spiritual Progress" last night were made to realize that they had scarcely begun spiritual growth, since there is so much to be attained, and that the injunction of the inspired writer had not been heeded and practically applied as it should have been, which he left on record for our inspiration, "This one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

The music, led by the chorus choir under the direction of B. K. Hill, was an inspiring feature of the services.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock the subject will be "A New Purpose." Sunday services will begin at 9 a. m. with Sunday-school under the superintendency of L. E. Walters, with sermon by Dr. Patterson at 10:30 a. m. on "Something New." A men's meeting will be held at 2:30 p. m. when the evangelist's subject will be "What Is Man?" The evening service will be at 7 o'clock with the subject, "The Value of the Soul."

There will be special music at all these services directed by B. K. Hill. Everybody not otherwise engaged in church work is invited to attend these services.

Watch Night Services.

Calvary Evangelical church will hold a watch-night service tonight from 9 until 12 o'clock. The general theme of the evening will be "Our Best for the Kingdom in 1922."

After the opening devotions, fifteen minutes will be given to the consideration of the work of each organization within the church, as to how it can best build up the Master's kingdom in 1922.

The following program is to be carried out:

Devotions, 9 to 9:25.

W. M. S. period, in charge of Mrs. Frank Smith, 9:25 to 9:40.

Y. P. A. period, in charge of Miss Beatrice Palmer, 9:40 to 9:55.

Special music, 9:55 to 10.

Sunday-school period, in charge of C. R. Beerbower, 10 to 10:15.

OTTAWA RIVER CEMETERY

The Ottawa River Cemetery is located north of State Route 189 on Putnam County Road 18-R at Rimer, Ohio. The recording of the cemetery was completed during the summer on 1999 by Patricia Graham, Mary Warrens, Vicki Patton and Ed Graham.

The cemetery is divided into four sections, A, B, C and Old. Sections A, B and C are next to Putnam County Road 18-R with Section A being the first section past the church. The stones were read from North to South and from the road to the back of the cemetery.

The Old section starts at the shed located at the back of Section B. The oldest stone recorded is for Joseph H. Rhodes, son of P & C Rhodes, who died Feb 4, 1810.

For a time this cemetery was known as the Guffey Cemetery and is the burial place of John and Nancy Guffey and their family and descendants.

OBITUARY

Once more the community has been called to see the passing from their midst a useful man who has proven his worth to all who knew him, in the person of Walter R. Horner, son of Orwell and and Justina Horner, who was born in Licking county, Ohio, near Hanover, March 1st, 1865.

He departed this life at his home four miles west of Columbus Grove, Ohio, April 16th, 1922 aged 57 years, 1 month and 16 days. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary E. Jones, December 24th, 1885 and to this union was born four children, three daughters and one son, Gertrude E. Rimer, of Monroe, Michigan, Florence J. Smith, of Columbus Grove, and Edith M. Best, at home and Wilbur Wadie, who died in infancy. In March 1893 Mr. Horner, was converted and professed his faith in Jesus Christ as his Saviour and united with the Maple Grove Christian church and was always a most devoted man to his faith in the Lord. He leaves to mourn their loss a wife, three daughters, five grand-children, two brothers and a host of friends.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. G. B. Garner, D. D. of West Cairo, who was an intimate friend. The funeral was held from the home, in the presence of a large and sympathizing congregation, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery one and a half miles west of Columbus Grove. The family wishes to express their thanks to all the neighbors who so kindly assisted them in their sorrow in so many ways and to all that rendered service in this their time of need.

OBITUARY

The grim messenger of death feared of many, came not unexpectedly, and as far as the departed was concerned, not unwelcomed, las Sunday morning, May 28th, at 7:30 o'clock to Mrs. Lucinda Rimer. Often in the past months had she expressed the desire that the time of her release might come, and that she might be permitted to pass on to that other country where she confidently expected to greet the loved and lost of other years.

The later years of her life were clouded with troubles and sorrows. Her husband, to whom she was much attached, passed away in July 1919, and a son who had made a long struggle against tuberculosis had finally come home to die and after a gradual decline passed away at the home of his parents in January 1918. She herself suffered bodily affliction which grew worse as age increased, and finally affected her mind as well as her body. But her children, and especially her oldest daughter cared for her faithfully through this long and trying period.

Mrs. Rimer was born in nion Township, Putnam County, Ohio on the 8th of October, 1846, and departed this life in Columbus Grove on May 28, 1922 at the age of 75 years, 7 months and 20 days. Her father and mother Edward Nichols and Margaret Irwin Nichols were the parents of six daughters and three sons. Two brothers Joseph and Edward Nichols preceeded her in death.

She was united in marriage with James Rimer on the 23rd of November, 1865. They resided for a time on a farm in Union Township, but Mr. Rimer's trade took him away from home during the day, so finally in 1895 they moved to Columbus Grove, and here she continued to reside during the remainder of her life.

Mrs. Rimer was the mother of five children One daughter died in infancy and her son C. C. Rimer who practiced law for a period of years in this and surrounding counties, died in 1918 as already noted.

In January 1871 she and her husband became members of teh Columbus Grove Presbyterian church and in that faith she remained a member of this organization until her death.

Mrs. Rimer was very tender hearted and sympathetic in disposition. Sorrow and trouble ever weighed heavily upon her, and during her life she had her full share of them to bear. She was loyal and devoted to her friends and the members of her household.

She leaves behind two daughters, Mrs. Walt Miller of Columbus Grove, and Mrs. Nellie Davies of Lapeer, Michigan, also one son, Emory Rimer of Whitehouse, Ohio. There are also 9 grand children and three great grand children.

Besides these there remain five sisters, Mrs. Martha Holt and Mrs. John C. Best of Columbus Grove, Mrs. Hannah Spratt of Dundee, Michigan, Mrs. Jane Anderson of Marion, Indiana and one brother, Amos Nichols of Columbus Grove.

She has passed through the valley of the shadow, may it be hers to rest in the land of eternal peace.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kind sympathy and helpfulness during the sickness and death of our mother, Lucinda Rimer.

Hundred Go To Funeral of Murdered Tot

Little Girl was Pet of Countryside--Mother Weeps in Lima Jail

Columbus Grove, May 27, -- Crying as if her heart would break, Mrs. Blanche Clevenger, who shot and killed her daughter, Earlene, nine years old, passed the time in the Allen county jail Sunday afternoon, while funeral services for the child were being held at the Congregational Church in Vaughnsville, Putnam County.

To Chief of Police Roush of Lima, Mrs. Clevenger manifested a desire to see the child in death. Sheriff Sherman E. Eley refused to allow her to attend the funeral. Chief Roush and the woman grew to man and womanhood in the same community, just south of here.

The small church would not hold the people who wished to see the body of this pretty little girl. While she and her mother still lived in Vaughnsville, before the divorce was granted, her father, Howard Clevenger, kept the only grocery and general store in the town and everybody for miles around knew Earlene. She was the pet of the community. Her brown curls were in place and the funeral director had successfully covered the marks made on each temple by the entrance of the bullets. Her dolly was by her side.

Long before time for the hour of the services, the entire countryside gathered. Such a funeral has not been held in the annals of Putnam county history. Three hundred carriages followed to the Ottawa River Christian church cemetery, where the body was laid to final rest.
